

Mercy Motherhouse, 1437 Blossom Rd. — Community penance service, 7:15 p.m. Tuesday, April 2. Those planning to attend should notify administrative secretary, 288-2710, by March 31.

Noontime Mass — Every Thursday, 12:05 p.m., St. Luke's, 17 S. Fitzhugh.

Blue Army — All-night vigil, April 5-6. Masses 9 p.m., 6 a.m., Holy Rosary Church, 414 Lexington.

Sacred Heart Cathedral — Choir concert 8 p.m. Tuesday, April 2.

St. Charles Borromeo — Womens Club card party, 8 p.m. Tuesday, April 2, in school hall, Dewey at Maiden Lane, $1.25.

St. Joseph, Franklin St. — Archconfraternity of the Holy Family 9 a.m. Mass-Sunday, April 7, followed by Easter Party, conference.

Our Lady of Good Counsel, Italian Supper in school, Ernestine St., 5-9 p.m. Saturday, March 30, $2 and $1.25.

Church Women United — Annual assembly, with election and installation of officers, choir concert, Francesca Guli, poet in residence at Nazareth College, guest, April 5, 10 a.m., Baptist Temple, 1101 Clover.

Annex Series — Friday, March 29, 12:05-12:55 p.m., St. Luke's, 17 S. Fitzhugh; historical precedents and legal considerations.

Cardinal Mooney High School — Womens Guild dinner dance 7 p.m., Saturday, April 6, Mr. and Mrs. William Kowal Jr. in charge, reservations through 663-3383 or 865-6235.

McQuaid Jesuit High School — BASH event Saturday, March 30, 7 p.m., at school; dinner party and auction.

Arquias Garage Sale — Saturday and Sunday, April 6 and 7, 1127 Dewey, with gift boutique and food booths.

Irondequoit High School — Talk on education by James Farmer, civil rights leader, 8 p.m. tomorrow, March 28.

Edison Technical and Industrial High School — Tech Follies, 28th annual show, 8 p.m. tomorrow and Friday, March 29.

SUC Brockport — March 31, 8:30 p.m., Woodwind Quintet, April 4, 7 p.m., Japanese theater lecture, April 5, 8:30 p.m., Brass Ensemble, all in Fine Arts Building.

Barley School of Music — Musical fashion show, 4:30 p.m. Friday, April 5, Strassenburgh Planetarium.

Barley School Orchestra — Free concert, 3 p.m. Sunday, March 31, 3137 West Church St., Fairport.

College Information — Manhattanville, Newton, Barat college representatives to meet high school sophomores and juniors, 2-4 p.m. Sunday, March 31, at home of Mrs. Justin Doyle, 15 Sand Brook Rd., Pittsford.

Interfaith Chapel, University of Rochester — William Stringfellow, William Hamilton speaking on post-Watergate morality, 8 p.m. Monday, April 1.

Eastman Polyphonic Choir — Music for Lent, 4 p.m. Sunday, March 31, Lutheran Church of the Reformation, 83 Grove.

Secretaries Day — Banquet, 6 p.m. Wednesday, April 24, Logan's, 1420 Scottsville Rd.

Rapunzel — Fairytale classic featuring Joe Brickler's marionettes, Community Playhouse, S. Clinton at Meigs, Friday, March 29, 7:30 p.m., Saturday and Sunday, March 30, 31, 1:30 and 4 p.m., Admission $1.

GeVa Theatre — 12:15 p.m. April 1-3 Red Peppers, 4 and 5, The Birthday Present, 5:45 and 8 p.m. April 2-4 Moby Dick, 5 and 6, Joe Egg, Saturday, 2 p.m. Moby Dick, 168 S. Clinton, 716/232-1363.

Sports Night — Rochester Professional Salesmen's Association, April 1 at Maple Dale Party House, featuring Bob Thomas, Bob Gouy, Don Cherry, Walt Patulski, $12.

Senior Citizens — Show and sale of arts and crafts, Eastman House, 10 a.m.-5 p.m. Saturday, March 30, 2-5 p.m. Sunday.

Southwest Golden Age group — Variety program, dancing refreshments, 1:30 p.m. Friday, March 29, at 34 Monica St.

Book Sale — St. Bernard's Seminary convent building, 1-5 p.m. Friday, March 29, about 5,000 used books, chiefly theology and history, some philosophy and fiction.

GROW Agency — Free employment counseling for persons 65 years old and more, 10 a.m.-2 p.m. Tuesday, April 2, Chili Public Library, 3235 Chili, 2-4 p.m. Wednesday, April 3, Charlotte Branch Library, 3615 Lake, 11 a.m.-4 p.m. Thursday, April 18, Greece Public Library, 125 Mitchell Rd.

Bridge Tournament — American Contract Bridge League's cancer benefit, 8 p.m. Friday, March 29, Xerox cafeteria, Building 335, Beine Drive, Webster, Open, $2.50.

Rochester Culinary Club — Annual dinner dance, 5:30 p.m. Sunday, March 31, Logan's Party House. Tickets from Chef Fabris at Spring House, Chef Readel, 275-4231.

Deadline

Calendar items should be mailed to the Courier-Journal Calendar Desk, 67 Chestnut St., Rochester, N.Y. 14604. Deadline is Wednesday noon, one week ahead of the publication date.

Sting, Pacino, Woodward Among DFB Oscar Picks

By RICHARD REAGAN Senior Editor, United States Catholic Conference Division for Film and Broadcasting.

Hollywood will be saluting itself this Tuesday evening, April

2, on NBC with a broadcast of the 46th Annual Oscar Awards ceremonies. Burt Reynolds and Diana Ross will be the pageant's Emcees.

Were out on a limb and ready to saw away with these sage predictions, based on a combination of hope, dread, savvy, and sheer whimsy.

For Best Picture, it looks like a horse race between our pick, The Sting, and American Graffiti, with The Exorcist as a dark horse — and we mean dark.

In the category of Best Performance by an Actor, we'll go with Al Pacino (Serpico) because he's the hottest thing in movies at the moment. Jack Nicholson is a second choice for his bravura performance in The Last Detail.

As winner of Best Performance by an Actress, we see Joanne Woodward (Summer Wishes, Winter Dreams), but we see her as a sentimental favorite deserving recognition in an otherwise excellent field, which includes Barbra Streisand (The Way We Were), Glenda Jackson (A Touch of Class), Ellen Burstyn (The Exorcist), and Marsha Mason (Cinderella Liberty).

For Best Actor in a Supporting Role, the standout is a veteran Hollywood director-turned-actor John Houseman, who played the crusty law professor in The Paper Chase. Among the other in this category, Jason Miller as Father Karras was overshadowed in The Exorcist by the overall sensation, and the others were undone either by other stars or by storylines.

Best Actress in a Supporting Role seems to be Madeline Kahn (Paper Moon), although little Tatum O'Neal almost outdid her in the same movie. If they give it to Linda Blair (The Exorcist) it will only add to the controversy about just how much she actually contributed to the part of Regan.

refreshing 90 minutes in a recent Sunday when the only thing usually available are such similar entries as "Mannix," "Columbo," "Barnaby Jones," "McCloud," etc.

Carol Burnett proved anew that restraint is the better part of acting and succeeded several times in accomplishing it in her own performance. Alan Alda was near perfect in this comedy and if he doesn't watch out could end up as a matinee idol instead of a wacky army surgeon.

If you have a spouse who is wild about both George M. Cohan and Jimmy Cagney, as mine is then there's little chance you missed the American Film Institute's tribute to the latter. The writing, the spontaneous warmth, the honored guest all added up to the best of this kind of show that TV has yet offered.

MEDAL OF THE WEEK goes to CBS correspondent Dan Rather for remaining unflustered and tossing Richard Nixon's question "Are you running for something?" back at him during the televised broadcaster's conference.

AS I SEE IT

So many TV specials in the past week or so it's difficult to keep track of them all. One that I enjoyed and found edifying in spite of pre-show apprehension was "We the Women" in the series "The American Parade." This tribute to some of the women who helped change the Constitution utilized the very words spoken by such women's rights advocates as Rochester's own Susan B. Anthony and Frederick Douglass, Elizabeth Cady Stanton, Lucretia Mott, Sojourner Truth and Carrie Chapman Catt.

Found Mary Tyler Moore a somewhat unusual choice for narrator. Miss Moore who has in her own top rated series dealt with women's lib problems more that once appeared too fragile in the company of all those stalwarts.

Much too often in this space we take to task the commercial messages that fill the air waves. It's nice now to be able to say something pleasant for a change. At our house we are mad for Dr. Pepper's "whimsical" and downright nutty ads. Don't know which agency is responsible but they deserve kudos galore.

6 RMS RIV VU" the title of a Broadway show about an apartment for rent gave us a WARNER'S LIQUOR STORE HINCHEY ROAD AT CHILI AVE.

JOSEPH De GEORGE Collins Suspended and Block Ceilings ONE DAY INSTALLATIONS Free Estimates Call Day or Night 647-3736 NO FUSS NO MESS DUST SAVE FOR FUTURE REFERENCE

Photo by Susan McKinney

Visitors Welcome

Gwendolyn Austin, a student at St. Monica's school, shows off her school work to Sister Mary Vincent, who teaches at Precious Blood School in Buffalo. Ten teachers from Precious Blood School spent Wednesday, March 13, visiting classes at St. Monica's.

Oblates Named

Six members of St. Joseph's Church have been given the title of Redemptorist Oblate by the Superior General of the Redemptorist order, which staffs the downtown church.

Armund Palms and Gertrude Stoecklein.

A formal reception ceremony, conducted by Msgr. Joseph L. Kerins, provincial of the order, was given the new oblates March 15.

The new oblates, or "dedicated persons" are Adelaide Beisenbach, Alphonse De Yaeger, Joseph Gervais, Joseph Hanss.

Gerould's Pharmacies S. Main St. and Church & Hoffman Elmira Delivery Service 733-6696

M. L. ALLEN & SON Corning, N.Y. Quality Furniture 62 Bridge St. Phone 936-8431

GUIDE TO FINE DINING The Big Elms Restaurant Hof Brau Haus Mr. Mike's Viking Kar-Mac Manor National Hotel Glen Iris Inn For info on ad rates, phone Bill Coffas, 454-7650