ST. ANN'S HAS SCIENCE FAIR

Hornell — The lengthy process of making cheese took top honors at the Mar. 31 St. Ann's School Science Fair. The first Grand Award went to Elizabeth Koehler and Elizabeth Diehl. Some visitors to the fair sampled the cheese and remarked "the end result was worth the time devoted to the project."

The two girls are seventh grade students.

The second Grand Award was presented to sixth graders Kathleen Graham and Patricia Reardon for their entry on "Air Pollution." Eighth grade first Place was won by Lisa Lackey on Coal-mining, second Place, Thomas Kinsman on volcanoes, third Place to Ann Ingalls and Paulette Polasik for their display on earthquakes.

Among the other winners were Carol Noonan, Shannon Crissy, Mary Margaret Kelleher, Timothy Freeland, William Davis and Ann Scaglione. Judges were William Smith, Arthur Burdick, Joseph Ami, John Babbitt, Thaddeus Kowalewski, Gail Mularz and Sister Georgia.

CONTEST WINNERS

Hornell — Rosemarie Colomaio, an eighth grade student at St. Ann's has won first place in a fire prevention essay contest covering 13 counties in Western New York.

Miss Colomaio is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Colomaio of Pardee St. The contest was sponsored by the Western New York Firemen's Association.

Another St. Ann's student, Mary Wulforst, a seventh grader and the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Wulforst of RD#3, won fifth prize in the seventh to ninth grade group.

The two local winners were among more than 100 whose essays were submitted by the Association.

Canandaigua

ROSARY, ALTAR NEWS

Canandaigua — The Rosary Altar Society of St. Mary's will hold an Easter bake sale for the benefit of the school. The sale will be held in the convent garage, April 7, after the 9 and 10:15 a.m. Masses.

The annual card party of the Rosary Altar Society, which was cancelled because of the school fire, has been rescheduled. Since the auditorium is being used for classroom space, the American Legion has donated its facilities. The party will be held at the Legion on Wednesday, April 24, at 8 p.m. Tickets for the original date will be honored or $1.00 may be paid at the door.

Reservations may be made by calling Mrs. Howard Megaffee, 394-0567, or Mrs. Joseph Fitzgerald, 394-4599. Proceeds will go towards the school remodeling fund.

NURSERY HEAD

Horseheads — Miss Maura McKiernan has been named director of St. Mary our Mother Sunday nursery. The nursery operates at 9:30 a.m. on Sundays.

EXPECTANT PARENTS

Elmira — A series of six Lamaze childbirth classes will be held at St. Joseph's Hospital health center beginning April 16. The program will begin at 7:30 p.m.

The Lamaze method of childbirth teaches expectant parents various relaxing exercises, breathing exercises and muscle strengthening exercises which enables the mother to deliver the child while she is awake and with her husband at her side.

Mothers interested in the program are asked to wear slacks and to bring two pillows and a blanket to the classes.

CHURCH CAREERS

Elmira — A church career day for Southern Tier residents will be held April 26 at St. Mary's Church. The program will run from 9 to 5 and from 6:30 to 9 p.m.

Billed as a project opened to all concerned Christians, the program will focus attention on methods that can be used in spreading the Gospel message.

The career day will be conducted in the gymnasium of the southside church, which is located on Franklin St.

CORRECTION

A photo on last week's Regional page had incorrect identification. The cutlines should have read Sister Clare Walsh of Immaculate Conception parish and a Newfield parishioner distribute Holy Communion during Mass at Newfield Family Center.
