

SISTERS ANNE AND MARY CLARE

Mercy Sisters Make Final Professions

Sister Mary Clare Bollow and Sister Anne Konopa made their final profession of vows in the Congregation of the Sisters of Mercy of Rochester on Sunday, May 5.

The profession took place at an afternoon Eucharistic liturgy at the Mercy Motherhouse on Blossom Road.

The profession theme was "God is love; serve the Lord with joy."

Concelebrants were Father William Cosgrove, Terence Fleming, and William McCusker SJ.

Both sisters entered the Mercy Congregation in 1965 and made their first commitment in 1968.

Sister Mary Clare is the daughter of Mrs. Mary Bollow, 1216 Hall St., Elmira and the late

Blair Bollow. She was a member of St. Cecilia's parish, Elmira, and graduated from Elmira Free Academy.

She has been office manager at Our Lady of Mercy High School since 1968. Prior to this, she was the secretary for the former Catherine McAuley College and McAuley Reading Lab of the Sisters of Mercy.

Sister Anne is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Konopa, 148 Colonial Road, Rochester. She was a member of St. James Parish and graduated from Our Lady of Mercy High School.

She attended Upstate Medical, Syracuse, from 1969-1971 and received a degree in X-Ray Technology in 1971 from Syracuse SUNY. She has been an X-Ray technician since 1971 at St. James Mercy Hospital, Hornell.

Penfield Man Honored by MCC

Laurence W. Feasel of Penfield has been named Monroe Community College's Distinguished Professor of 1974 and will be honored at commencement May 22. He is an assistant professor of history and political science.

Feasel was selected for the honor by the Student Senate and the Faculty Academic Governance Board. The college's Board of Trustees cited him for "superb classroom performance, active scholarship, generosity of time in serving students willingly and ably, and encouragement and support of students in attaining academic excellence."

NURSES SET PROGRAM

"When Our Patients are Dying" is the subject of a symposium planned by the Nurses Christian Fellowship. The program is scheduled for 9:30 a.m. - 3:30 p.m., Saturday, May 18, in the Highland Hospital auditorium.

He is a native of the Rochester area and a graduate of McQuaid Jesuit High School. He received a B.S.S. degree from John Carroll University and an M.A. from the University of Rochester and has done work toward a doctorate at Michigan State University. He came to MCC in 1968, after Army Service.

The Rev. William Showalter will be keynote speaker. Panelists include Sister Oliva of St. Mary's Hospital, Edwin S. Smith, director of St. John's Home; Dr. Lena Castenada, psychiatrist at Strong Memorial Hospital, and Diane Bennett, Highland Hospital clinician.

Ken Jones Camp Slated

The 10th annual Ken Jones Basketball Camp will begin Sunday, June 23. The resident sessions are to be held at Eisenhower College, Seneca Falls; the day camp will be held at the Allendale-Columbia School, Rochester. Both the resident and day camps are for boys 10-18 years of age.

The resident camp has two one week sessions. The first session will be held June 23-29 and the second Aug. 11-17.

The day camp has two two-week sessions beginning July 8 and continues through August 1. A special girls' session will be offered at the day camp for girls 10-18 years of age July 22-Aug. 1.

Some outstanding basketball personnel will be assisting with the program, including Calvin Murphy from the Houston Rockets; and Gar Heard, Bob Kaufman, and Jack Ramsay from the Buffalo Braves.

ME MARKS GROWTH

Ithaca — With the motto "making good marriages better", the Ithaca Chapter of the Southern Tier Marriage Encounter Group has experienced marked growth during its year and a half existence. The number of "encountered" couples has grown from five in 1972 to 75.

These figures were disclosed, at the May 5 information meeting, held at Immaculate Conception School, by Mary and Ed Reinagel, of Trumansburg. The Reinagels were among the first to encounter in the area and are planning a renewal encounter in the near future.
