

PILGRIM.

...a people on

The old and the new. Father Thomas M. Reddington, right, the original coordinator of the foreground, as new coordinator in impressive ceremonies as part of the pilgrimage services at the Cathedral. Here they pass through an honor guard provided by the Knights of Columbus. Father Reddington was later to receive a standing round of applause for his work as coordinator.

Crossbearer Gret Tuttle leads the procession into procession were Dan McGuire and John Humni

Photos by: Dave Witbeck

Auxiliary Bishop John E. McCafferty welcomes pilgrims to the Cathedral. Bishop McCafferty also is director of the Holy Year. Other speakers [above right] were from left, Father Robert F. McNamara of St. Bernard's Seminary, Sister Mary Jo Langie who read the Epistle at the services and George Pfeifer, regional parish council chairman.

Pilgrims take part in reading at Cathedral.