

Walking 30 miles doesn't seem to bother these young Holy Year pilgrims.

Holy Year Pilgrimage

A 30-mile Walk, With Rain

Ithaca — Undaunted by the rain, a host of young pilgrims completed a 30-mile walk June 26 from Immaculate Conception rectory where to St. Patrick's Parish in Owego, as part of their Holy Year celebration.

Teens from the Reality group at St. Patrick's joined the pilgrims for the last three miles of the journey. A cook-out and Mass concluded the celebration.

SCHOLARSHIPS

Elmira — Six seniors at Notre Dame High School were awarded scholarships under the Dollars for Scholars program. The awards were presented during graduation exercises to James Craft, Colleen Forsyth, Elizabeth Nolan, Theresa Tanaka, Kathleen Norton and Mary Stetz.

The awards in the amount of $300 each are determined through an anonymous awards committee with the assistance of a computerized service at Princeton, N.J.

PICNIC

Owego — St. Patrick's parish will hold its annual picnic July 14 at Skyline Park.

FESTIVAL

Elmira — St. Casimir's recent festival grossed $11,017, according to the latest figures. The committee hopes that the final tally will show a net profit of $7,000 from the one-day event.

The Holy Year Pilgrimage was undertaken by three adults and 12 teens from the Reality groups at St. James the Apostle in Trumansburg and St. Catherine of Siena and Immaculate Conception in Ithaca. Reality offers a series of follow-up sessions for those who have made the Teen Seminar retreat.

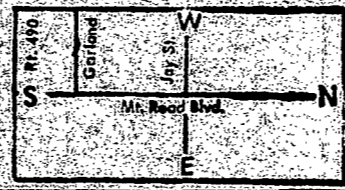

"All the kids finished but I pulled a leg muscle two-thirds of the way through," said Father David Mura, associate pastor at Immaculate Conception. One mother "also pooped out," he reported.

An 8 a.m. Mass set the mood for the pilgrimage and the hikers sang hymns, prayed the Rosary and visited cemeteries along the 30-mile route. A prayer service was conducted at St. Francis Church in Catatunk.

Vatican City (RNS) — A four-year-old girl slipped through a protective railing and fell some 150 feet to her death from the dome of St. Peter's Basilica on June 29.

the small balcony, slipped through the protective railing, rolled down the dome and plunged to the terrace below.

Pope Paul later visited the small chapel where the child, Maria Pasqua Agostino, was lying, wound a blessed rosary around her fingers, and comforted her parents, who had come to Rome as members of a pilgrim's group from Apulia, southern Italy.

The accident — the first of its kind in the memory of Vatican officials — occurred when the little girl and her parents reached the top of the circular stairway inside the walls of the dome. Maria squirmed loose from her father's arms and scurried out to
