

Religious education reaches the diocese's 17 colleges with campus ministries. At the State University College at Geneseo, students can relax and reflect in the Interfaith Center's quiet meditation room.

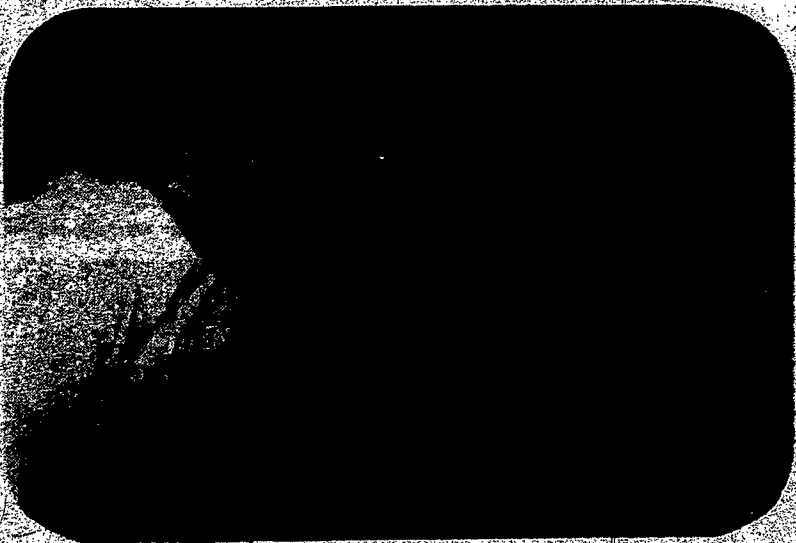

The traditional blackboard is a learning tool for St. Anne's [Palmyra] religious education.

Enthusiasm runs high for this religion question.

Sister Michael Lappetito, director of religious education.

Father James Lawlor, associate pastor at St. Charles Borromeo and Peter Villa, confer at the teen coffeehouse, The Loft, a project sponsored by the parish.

Photo by Bruce Gerall