The Southeast Region's first Regional Conference for 1974-75 will be held Sept. 22 from 7:30 to 10 p.m. at the University of Rochester's Interfaith Center.

mittees or sent to the diocesan level for resolution.

Regional Conferences for the Southeast Region will also be held in November, January, March and May.

The Conference is an assembly of people who meet as representatives of their respective parishes and institutions. Father Roy Kiggins, Southeast Regional Coordinator, is asking for three representatives from each group in the region.

As sort of a clearing house for matters that affect more than one regional parish or institution, the Conference's purpose is to see that such matters are attended to by individuals, regional com-
