

Graphics by Brother Placid Stuckenschneider, OSB

Unlike most of the apostles, St. Matthew relinquished a politically important and lucrative profession to follow the Lord. When Jesus called him he quickly traded his tax-collector's chair for a judgement seat over Israel and his money for the treasures of eternal life. His Gospel is an exposition of the role our Lord fills in completing the prophesies of the Old Testament, and shows Jesus to be the true Messiah.