

A Day at St. Peter's . . .

Bishop Joseph L. Hogan atop St. Peter's Basilica, Vatican City in background.

Anthony J. Costello climbs ladder with assistance from Msgr. Richard K. Burns, pastor at St. Thomas the Apostle in Irondequoit, who is accompanying the bishop in Rome to take the picture at top of this page.

Bishop Hogan and Msgr. Burns study the Holy Door at St. Peter's Basilica which is opened only every 25 years for Holy Years. The inside of the door is shown below.

Bishop Hogan with two members of the order of the Figlie de San Giuseppe at the altar dedicated to Pius X. The Sisters do all the altar work at St. Peter's. Bishop said to tell diocesans that he especially remembered them in his prayers at this altar for Pius X, patron for religious education.

