Bishop Joseph L. Hogan pauses at the Roman Forum.

Bishop Hogan and Msgr. Burns get in some healthy exercise to offset those hefty Italian meals. Here they are in the area near the famous ruins, Forum and Colosseum.

Some of the classmates of Father Joseph Beatini, third from right, were in Italy to join in his special celebration of his 25th jubilee in northern Italy. They took the opportunity to stop off at Nemi to visit Father Patrick Grace, second from left, of the diocese. Father Grace conducts a renewal course in Theology at the Divine Word Seminary in Nemi. Rochester priests Father James Marvin, left, Msgr. Richard K. Burns, second from right, and Father Charles Bennett made the trip.

Msgr. Richard K. Burns of St. Thomas the Apostle Church, who accompanied Bishop Hogan to Rome, stopped at a wayside stand near Castelgandolfo to purchase these flowers. For what purpose? See photo at right.

Bishop Hogan presents the flowers to a pair of brothers from Rome, Gianluca and Fabrizio Sabatini.
