

The role of the missionaries is two-fold — spiritual and physical. Their work witnesses the truth that all people are children of God and have a dignity and a destiny. Your assistance will help support thousands of native-born Sisters and mission seminarians who will bring this message to their countrymen.

A Ghanian nun supervises medical

Pray, Love, G

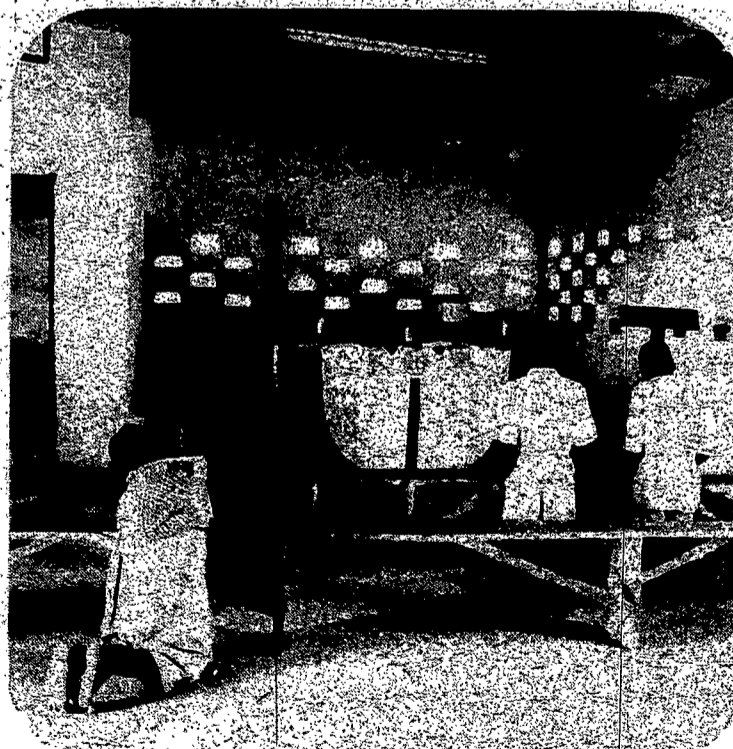

of this year's Mission Sunday appeal Oct. 20.

Never has the world needed prayer more, never have people needed each other's love more, and never has the need to give been greater than at the present time.

Needless to say, there are millions in this world who hunger and thirst, not only for things of the body but for things of the s always primari

need,
touchin
souls o
matter
habitat.

Then
someo
the hu
natural
a vacci

Father John Straathof, SVD, from Holland built a beautiful chapel at Tatale, Yendi District of Ghana. Some villagers arrive early for service. At left, a student is exposed to the Good News at St. Martin de Porres Institute at Sunson, founded by Father Charles Erb, SVD, of Rochester.

Father William Brown, OFM, a native from W team is at work, th