Dedication Rites Held For New Auburn Church

Auburn — A Church is more than a building — it is a people called to proclaim the mystery of faith — a place of challenge to live fully the dimensions of faith, Bishop Joseph L. Hogan noted at the dedication ceremonies for Sacred Heart Church. The rites took place Sunday, Oct. 20.

A highlight of the liturgy, which was prepared by Sacred Heart's liturgy committee, was the installation of lay ministers of the Eucharist.

Joining Bishop Hogan in the concelebrated Mass were: Father Raymond J. Wahl, pastor, Sacred Heart; Msgr. Joseph G. Gefell, regional coordinator, and Father William J. O'Brien. Also, Father Felix Bracikowski, OFM Conv.; Father Edward A. Shamon, Msgr. Joseph J. Sullivan, Father Michael F. Conboy, and Father Louis A. Sirianni, associate pastor, Sacred Heart. Former associates included Fathers George Wiant, Albert Cason, Charles Mulligan, Philip Billotte, and Father Albert Delmonite and Father Paul McCabe.

The church structure adjoins an all-purpose building which is now used for Christian formation classes and as a parish center.

Elected To Synod

Archbishop Joseph L. Bernardin of Cincinnati, one of four U.S. delegates to the current Synod of Bishops in Rome, was the first delegate unanimously elected to the new 15-member council of the Synod's secretary general, which will plan the 1977 Synod. The archbishop, who also delivered the American bishops' "intervention" on the relationship of communication to evangelization, was the only prelate elected to the new Synod council on the first ballot, receiving an absolute majority.
