

Halloween Spirit

Photo by Susan McKinney

Mrs. Teresa Gerhardt helps her class of preschool children at Holy Rosary school get in the Halloween spirit as they admire their just carved pumpkin. Mrs. Sue Chamberlain is the children's other teacher. Mrs. Florentine Rickard works with the mothers.

Mercy Wins Again

Photo by Susan McKinney

Judy Peace shows the kind of leg work which contributed to Mercy High School's 3-0 defeat of St. Agnes High School soccer team Oct. 22. Sue Doran, number 28 on the St. Agnes team, follows in close pursuit. Mercy, 8-0-1, is number one in the girls' City-Catholic Soccer League.

St. Columba Pilgrimage

Caledonia — The parishes of Livingston County and three from southwestern Monroe will have a Holy Year pilgrimage to St. Columba's Church at 3 p.m. Sunday, Nov. 3. The pastors will celebrate Mass with Bishop Dennis W. Hickey, who will give the homily.

Each church has been asked to send one parishioner to take part in the offertory procession. Each also has been asked to prepare a petition for the Prayers of the Faithful and a banner for the procession that will take place on Lehigh and North streets before the Mass. The lay readers will be from Caledonia, Avon and Nunda. Monroe County parishes invited are St. Pius X, St. Christopher and St. Mary of the Assumption, Scottsville.

CARD PARTY

The Rosary and Holy Name societies of St. James Church will hold their annual scholarship benefit card party at 8 p.m. Monday, Nov. 11, in the parish hall, at Brett and Brockley roads. Scholarships are awarded each year to two St. James eighth graders who are entering Catholic high schools.

Senior Citizens:

W.I.N. WHIP INFLATION NOW

The owners of the Hilton East Residential Home have joined President Ford and the nation in the battle against inflation. Our low rates of $17.50 for double and $19.50 for single accommodations shall not be raised. We further pledge that the high level of service, that we are fast becoming known for, shall be constantly reviewed and upgraded.

Each day at Hilton East is a refreshing new experience with fine food and recreational programs. Each staff member is devoted to your comfort, convenience, and safety.

For those of you on Social Security trying to make ends meet, the new S.S.I. program under Social Security will pay your entire bill plus some spending money, if you qualify.

Come out anytime and see us or call 392-7171.

Open House each Sunday from 1 to 5 p.m. Only 20 minutes from downtown Rochester in a quiet country setting.

Hilton East
Residential Home
231 East Ave.
Hilton, New York

hilton east
RESIDENTIAL HOME

Today's Child is the Promise of Tomorrow

Adoption:
"We must make Family Court more accessible to would be parents. Let's speed up our administrative services. A child in need doesn't understand red tape."

The Court:
"Family Court must treat all people with dignity, understanding and above all, respect. We must be of service to the parent as well as the child. What happens in Family Court can determine the future of our community."

DEMOCRAT (198), CONSERVATIVE (19C).
VOTE FOR DONALD CORBETT
FAMILY COURT JUDGE
CITIZENS for CORBETT, J. ELFERINK

The Man.

Admitted to New York State Bar—1959.
Member of Rochester Law firm of Liebschutz, Rosenbloom and Samloff.
Member of American Bar Association.
American Trial Lawyers Association.
American Judicature Society.
New York Bar Association.
Monroe County Bar Association Board of Trustees 1974.
National Panel of Arbitrators of American Arbitration Assoc.
7th District Governor of N.Y.S. Trial Lawyers Assoc.
Past President of Monroe County Plaintiff's Trial Lawyers Association.

"FOR REASON'S SAKE" Richard D. ROSENBLIUM SUPREME COURT JUDGE (6d)

CITIZENS FOR RICHARD D. ROSENBLIUM, DEMOCRAT, H. SAMLOFF, TREASURER