Hall of Fame Sets Benefit

The Monroe County High School Hall of Fame, now in its second year, will hold a dinner dance Nov. 21 at the War Memorial to raise money for college scholarships. Tickets, $25 per person, may be obtained by writing to Andrew Sparacino, Hall of Fame, 100 Exchange St., Rochester 14614.

Father Charles J. Lavery, president of St. John Fisher College, is chairman of the committee that will administer the scholarship fund. George Monagan, director of athletics at Monroe Community College, is chairman of the Hall of Fame selection committee.

Athletes honored in a permanent exhibit of photographs and other memorabilia in the War Memorial are JoAnn Keyser, Wheelchair Olympics medalist; Johnny Antonelli, former major league baseball pitcher, and the late Don Holleder, a football star at Aquinas and West Point who was killed in the Vietnam war.

Mooney People At Study Weekend

A group of teachers, parents and students from Cardinal Mooney High School took part in a recent weekend symposium on the U.S. Bishops' pastoral letter on education — To Teach as Jesus Did.

The event, arranged by the Brothers of the Holy Cross, was held in Valatie, an Albany suburb. Among the speakers were Bishop Maurice J. Dingman of Des Moines, a member of the commission that wrote the document; Dr. David O'Brien, a history professor at Holy Cross, and Sister Marian Cowan, CSJ, of the St. Louis University divinity faculty.

Mooney representatives were Brothers Aubert Harrigan, Edward O'Connell, Donald Fleischhacker and John Larrere; Sister Maureen Flood; Mrs. and Mrs. John Holahan, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas White, James Graff, Carol Corbit, Joseph Pierce and Meg Tydings.

SOUP LABELS
