

'Pilgrim Virgin' Touring Diocese

Some 40 stops are planned for the Statue of Our Lady of Fatima, the Pilgrim Virgin, during a one-month visit to the Rochester diocese, according to Father Edward Shamon, official host.

Highlight of the visit will be a 5 p.m. Mass at the Cathedral on Sunday, Nov. 10. The statue was brought to the Auburn Correctional Facility last Saturday and already has been displayed at Father Shamon's St. Aloysius Church and other churches in Auburn, Waterloo, East Bloomfield and Canandaigua.

The statue was a gift to the people of the United States from the bishop of Fatima, Portugal, where miraculous appearances of Mary are believed to have taken place.

"People are not so naive to say that a rosewood statue brings miracles," said Father Shamon, "but the response to the statue's tour throughout the nation reflects the sensitivity of the people in the street."

The statue, it should be noted, has no virtue in itself. It is merely a representation, an image and any honor rendered is to the Mother of Christ who appeared at Fatima and promised peace if certain conditions exist.

The idea of the "pilgrim" or "traveling" statue of the Virgin of Fatima began in 1947, after Pope Pius XII had crowned the original statue through a cardinal legate. A youth congress the following year, came up with the idea of carrying a copy of the statue processionaly to Russia.

Cinderella

90 Pilgrims Journey to Auriesville

The Shrine of the North American Martyrs in Auriesville was the site for a recent parish pilgrimage from St. John of Rochester, Fairport.

Leading the more than 90 pilgrims was Father Vincent Collins, pastor.

According to James Roman, chairman of the parish liturgy committee, the group toured the entire shrine, recited the rosary in the ravine where Father Rene Goupil was martyred, followed the Stations of the Cross and attended devotional services and Mass.

Roman noted that the pilgrims "expressed their pleasure and excitement at attending this special event. It was quite apparent that the Lord had blessed this pilgrimage abundantly."
