St. Matthew tells us that when Christ began his public ministry, he said that he was establishing his kingdom. The feast of Christ the King was established by Pope Pius XI in 1925, and he composed an encyclical on the subject.

Stella Maris . . . Looking Ahead

A special four-page section in the center of this newspaper describes the exciting future of a diocesan institution — Camp Stella Maris.

Literally thousands of diocesans have been associated with the camp through nearly a half-century of service. Camp officials, however, are not so much looking back to its gloried past but are working to help the camp meet its full potential in the future.

For a word and picture explanation of the camp's plans please see the four pages in the center of this edition.
