

Cardinal Mooney Musicians Busy

The Cardinal Mooney High School Varsity Chorus under the direction of Brother John Larrere, CSC, recently presented a joint concert with the Byron-Bergen High School Chorale at Bergen. The program was directed by Steven Eliscu, a former student teacher at Cardinal Mooney.

The chorus gave its annual school Christmas Concert on Dec. 14. Along with the Brass Quintet, they also presented a program at the Hill Haven Nursing Home on Dec. 16.

The Varsity Band was busy at several grade schools. This assembly-concert tour, conducted and narrated by David Ameele, and Jill Pendergast, will be repeated on Dec. 20.

The Mooney Instrumentalists

on Dec. 17 joined the Jefferson High School Choir for a performance of the Robert Shaw Cantata, "The Many Moods of Christmas" which was conducted by Louis Ugino of the Jefferson Music Department.

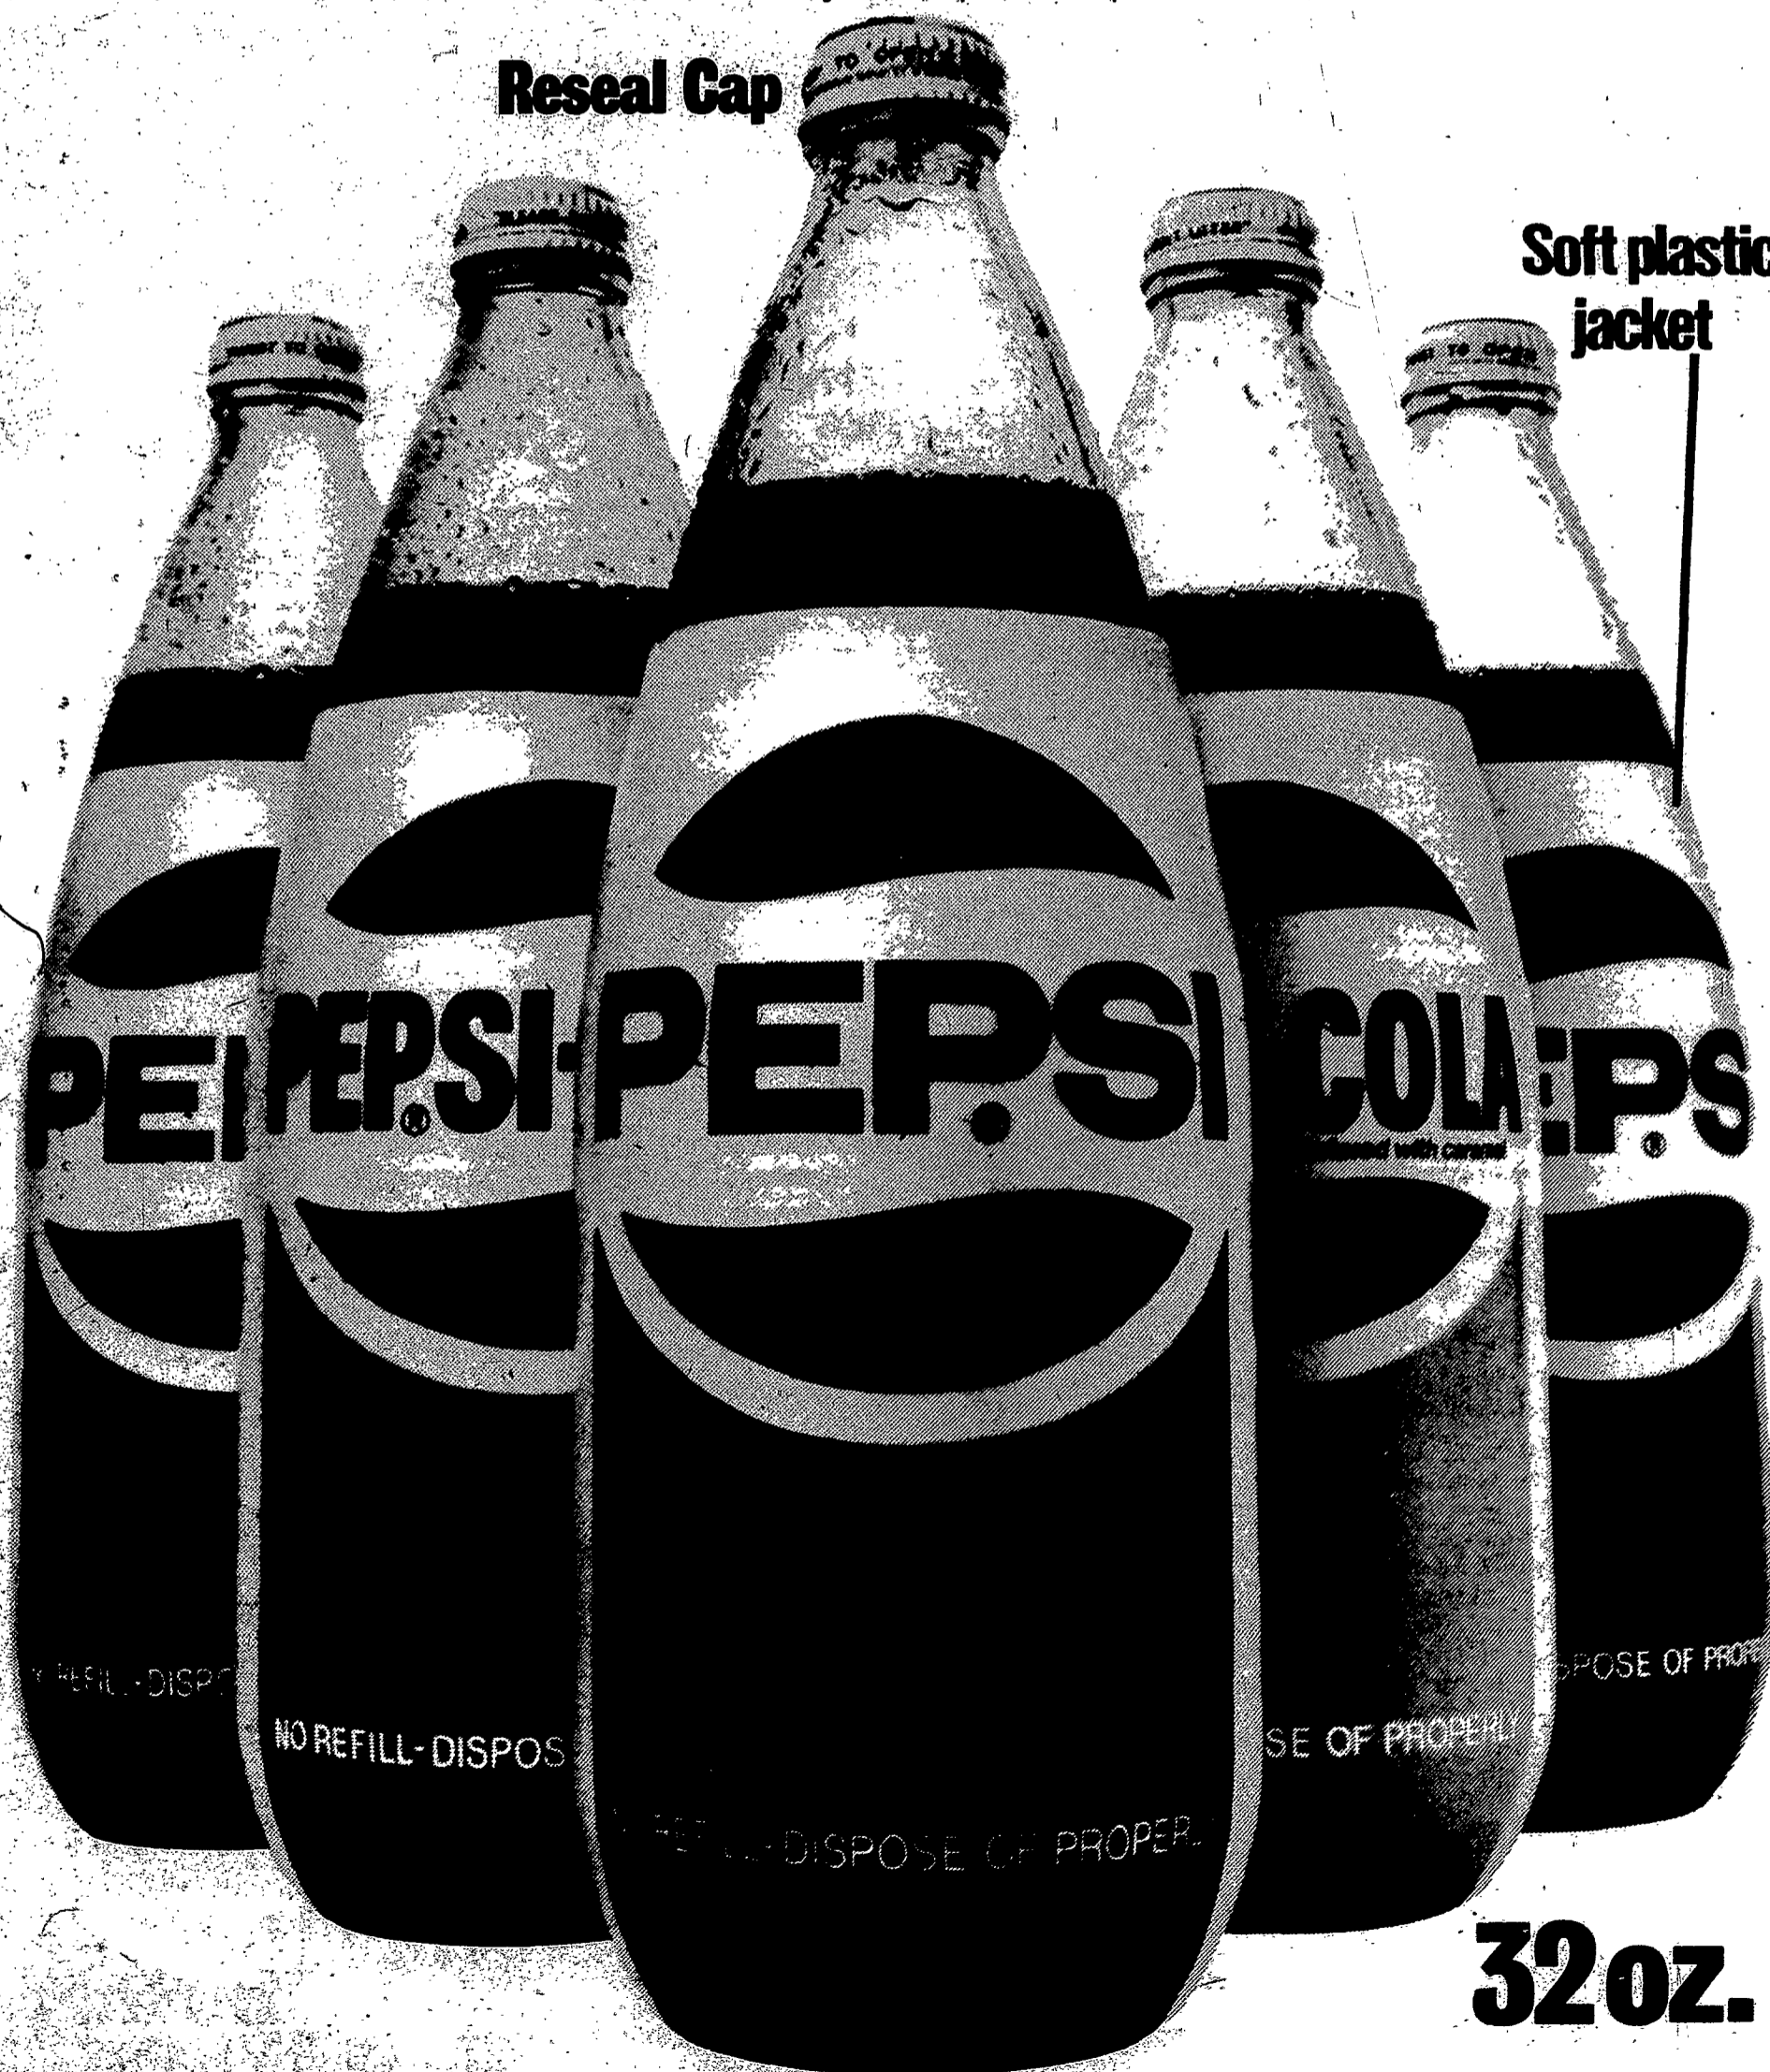

Today the Mooney Freshman

Band will give its first performance of the year. The program, to be conducted by Ameele, will consist of early English music as well as Christmas selections and will begin at 7:30 p.m. in the Mooney Auditorium.
