

Mt. Carmel's Carlos Diaz battles with St. Margaret Mary's Bill Christner during the Northeast division upset in which Mt. Carmel triumphed (81-71). Despite the loss, St. Margaret Mary's managed to capture the division title.

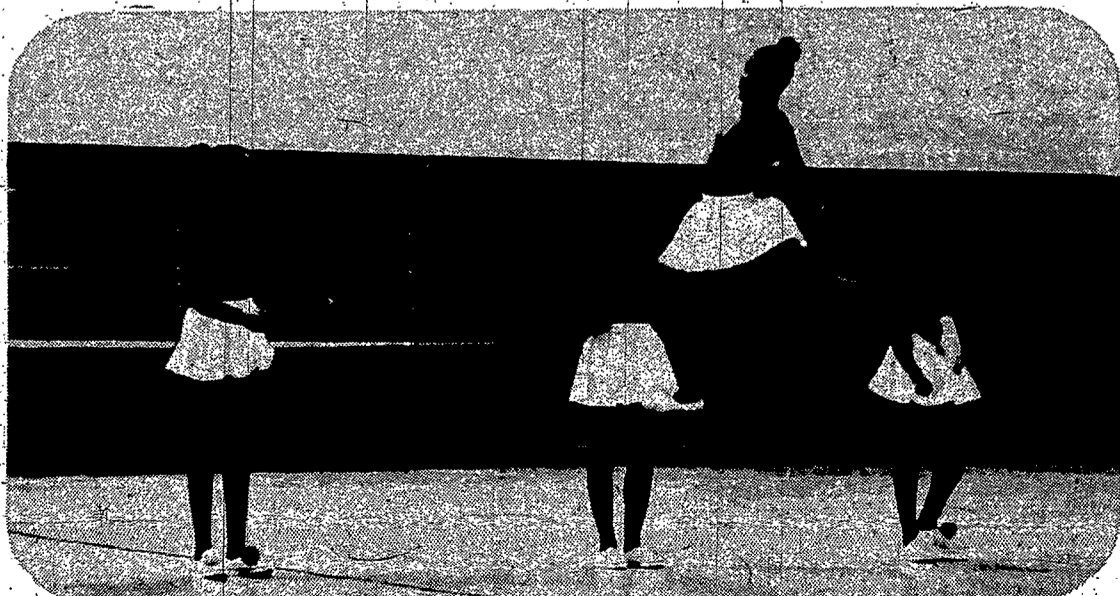

Ron Celli of St. Margaret Mary, threatened by Mt. Carmel opponents, looks for a teammate to catch the ball he prepares to toss.

Tim Condon of St. Margaret Mary tries his best to block Mt. Carmel's John White's pass.

Dave Burns, a senior economics major at St. John Fisher, has coached the NE division champion, St. Margaret Mary's, for two years. Here, he explains strategy to Tim Condon.

These Mt. Carmel cheerleaders' shouts and acrobatics are instrumental in encouraging their team to victory. They are one of the many cheerleading squads sponsored by the CYO for the basketball league. The CYO holds an annual cheerleaders' tournament.

A young spectator keeps her fingers crossed, hoping that her team will make that basket.