

Wednesday, April 2, 1975

undRapAroundRapAroundRapAroundRa

Should stores dealing in family consumer products (pharmacies, supermarkets) display the Playboy, Playgirl, Penthouse type magazines in plain view?

CARDINAL MOONEY

fom Schultz, senior, business manager have them off t h e magazine rack. The adult individual should be able to go into the store and be able to buy the magazines, but they should be in a special place. Seventh and eighth graders going through the store might be influenced by the covers and then become in-terested in the rest of the

Al Lopa, sophomore, track team

Thev (magazines) should be on separate racks within view of people, but not within grasp of the younger children years and under Perhaps on the magazine.'

top shelf where they couldn't be accessible to kids to look through. They shouldn't be put under the shelves where people wouldn't know about them. If they don't see them they won't buy them."

Cindy McDonald, senior think

This type of onsumer respon-president Student Council yearbook think it would be have a little sister who an infringement is four years old, the stores' and I'm thinking rights not to have them carry. if she went in one of the stores these magazines, and found one out they should o f these malin magazines next to Sesamé Street she might ask some questions. I don't think they should be out in plain view. They should be kept in the back. I wouldn't want the little kids to see them. If people want these magazines they should ask for them. If eight or nine-year-olds look through this type of magazine they can be in-fluenced."

Kathy Sheils, senior,

vice

Glen Guarino, senior, band "I think it should be up to the individual store. they think having the magazines out, or in a special deterplace mines the selling actor thev hould decide whether to have them displayed. If they decide to display them, it's immaterial whether they offer consumer services. I don't think little kids going through the store would be influenced by them."

Eileen Hanratty; junior, ski club

would take an interest

be little

the

would

Mooney/cheerleaders, first row: Sheila Chiarenza, Eileen Ferron, Kathy Hart, Joan Ambusk, Nancy Lester, Mary Beth Mariano; second row, Ann Marie Moore, Sue Springer, Lissa Van DeValk (co-captain), Judy Felber, Mary Beth Keeter, Dani Ann O'Brien, Mary Jo Smith (cocaptain).. Team placed first in Section 5.

Mooney Cheering Squad First in Competition

Cardinal Mooney The Cheerleaders have been awarded first prize in the Section 5 Basketball Tournament's second annual cheerleading competition. The Mooney Squad also placed first in last year's competition.

The announcement was made at the Cardinal Mooney Webster tournament game on Friday, March 14, at the War Memorial. The Mooney team, returned to the War Memorial on March 22, the evening of the tournament's final game

Last year marked the initial year of the Section -5 Cheerleading competition. Last year's program took place only during the actual tournament games. Mrs. Pat Drum and her sectional committee, expanded this year's evaluation procedure to include all the games in which the cheerleaders performed from the beginning of the season.

During the regular season, each cheerleading coach judged the squad from the opposing school. The judgments were based on criteria including image, effect, difficulty, precision and sportsmanship. Judges from division headquarters attended several games to evaluate both squads cheering at a particular game. Cardinal Mooney competes in Class AAA, schools with the largest enrollments.

The Mooney cheerleading program is directed by Sister Marlene McQueeney. A member of the Social Studies Department, she specializes in Political Science and U.S. History. She hails from Auburn, and has a Masters Degree from Dayton University.

Page 13

The Mooney cheerleaders are seen at football, soccer and basketball games; they also compete in post seasonal competitions. It is not unusual to hear the gym filled with their enthusiastic cries at the unenthusiastic hour of 7 a.m.

Their early morning efforts have brought them to the very top. Number One in Section 5.

sibility in carrying this type of magazine, but with restrictions to who it can be sold to, and not having the magazines easily accessible to younger kids."

magazines and read them. It's all right for the stores to carry them. don't think making the stores keep the magazines under the counter infringes on their rights."

Mary Frances Staub, junior"1

of books

they feel shouldn't b displayed. It is up to the parents decide to whether or no the child b exposed to thi type 0 magazine. doesn't hurt the store's sales will ask for them.

parents they (magazines) shouldn't be out where they can they are kept off the shelves. The adults know they have them and see them. These magazines are an influence on the kids.

Coordinators

AQUINAS	Tom Rosica – Sophomore
BISHOP KEARNEY	Bill Blum – Senior
CARDINAL MOONEY
DE SALES	. Thomas Marino – Junior
McQUAID
NAZARETH	Pat Hartleben - Junior
NOTRE DAME	. Victor Coroscio – Senior
OUR LADY OF MERCY
·
ST. AGNES	Linda Petote - Senior

photo by Sue McKinn

RapAround weekly will run a photo of a group of students taken somewhere in the diocese. One person will be circled and if that person brings the clipping to the Courier-Journal before noon of the Tuesday following publication date, he or she will receive $5. This week's photo was taken at the Mercy-Penfield basketball game. The person circled above should bring the clipping to Joan M. Smith, Courier-Journal, by noon, Tuesday, April 8 to receive $5.