- The ministry's teaching experience includes preparing second grade pupils at St. Francis for reception of the sacrament of the Eucharist, and the school children of St. Stephen's for Penance

During a visit to DeSalles the would like to teach."

One of her proteges, Kelly McCuskar who was excited about the lessons exclaimed, 'I like the work we do, and the high school kids make it interesting.

Juniors Rita Crisanti and Chuck Kenny also had attentive gloups of youngsters eager to continue their preparations for the sacrament of Penance.

Many academic and vocational skills are taught at DeSales, but the school's uniqueness comes trom the integration of Cospel and Christian values into all that is taught. Sister Agnes summed up the school's philosophy as "teaching the message, forming a community, and encouraging the students to give service
