Nazareth College Names Basilian to Be Chaplain

Father John Forrest Robbins, a Basilian priest, has been appointed Catholic chaplain in the office of Campus Ministry at Nazareth College of Rochester.

The appointment is effective Sept. 1. The current chaplain, Msgr. William H. Shannon, Ph. D., will become associate chaplain. This will give him more time to devote to the Department of Religious Studies, of which he is chairman. Sister Barbara Ann Foss will continue as assistant chaplain.

Among Father Robbins' duties as chaplain will be the development of plans for use of a new Interfaith Chapel, part of a College Community Center, construction of which is due to begin this year on the Nazareth campus. These plans will include involvement of ministers of other faiths in worship and counseling activities, as determined by student interest.

Father Robbins is a native Rochesterian.

K of C Welcomes 70 New Members

Hornell — About 70 men from the area were received into the Knights of Columbus Fourth Degree at Exemplification and Memorial ceremonies Apr. 13 in St. Ann's School. About 40 members of the class honoring the late Dr. J. G. Kelly of Hornell were Hornellians. Others came from councils in Bath, Corning, Elmira, Horseheads, Watkins Glen, Dansville, Geneva, Auburn, Canandaigua, Mt. Morris, Ithaca, Wellsville, Newark, Seneca Falls, Lyons, Waterloo and Rochester.

These communities comprise the K of C's state fifth district.

Dr. Kelly was a founder and organizer of the Fourth Degree in Hornell and served as its first faithful navigator. The exemplification at St. Ann's School was followed by Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament in St. Ann's Church. Various color guards in regalia paraded to the K of C home on Main St. where a dinner and dance was conducted for about 200 members and guests.

The exemplification was the first in Hornell in 60 years and fifth district officials say the present class is one of the largest in 20 years. Paul G. Rombaut, of Rochester, fifth district master, was in charge of the exemplification team. His marshal, Robert Farrell also of Rochester was in charge of the color guards. Father Leo J. Mans, pastor of St. Ignatius, was a team member.

Other clergymen attending included Fathers Robert C. MacNamara, pastor of St. Ann's; Dominic J. Grasso, pastor of St. Michael's Lyons; John S. Whalen, pastor of St. Patrick's, Mt. Morris; and Stanislaus H. Bialaszewski, Bath Veterans Administration Center chaplain. Albert L. Chapman of North Hornell, fifth district deputy was program chairman, assisted by his son Robert as general chairman.

HOW TO SLEEP BETTER WITHOUT TAKING PILLS

Instead of taking something to help you sleep, why not give something — to help those poor unfortunates who all too often find sleepless nights a way of life. Helpless and homeless, they are kept awake by hunger and misery. But they hunger for more than food. They are also starved for the Word of God. In their need, they have no one to turn to except the dedicated missionaries who try as best they can to alleviate the world's terrible sufferings. Before another night goes by, please help these devoted men and women to carry out God's work.

HELP US HELP. Truly, the Society for the Propagation of the Faith is the principal one among all Christian charities, for it represents the total Church in its work of extending the Kingdom of Christ on earth. Through your charity the Society supports more than 187,000 missionaries and seminarians — providing love, faith and hope as well as food, medicines, education and shelter through orphanages, hospitals, schools, leprosaria and homes for the aged throughout the world.

Let me share in the service, selflessness and love of our missionaries, and in the prayers of the thousands helped by the missions. I joyfully enclose my gift of $ _____ 4/23/75
