

CYO Sets Swimming Program

The Outdoor Swim Program operated by the Catholic Youth Organization for eight weeks each summer has been, according to Jack Quiggle, CYO community services director, "a very successful program." Last year 450 people participated, using 27 privately owned inground, heated pools throughout Monroe County.

The program is designed to introduce tots to the water and give swimming instruction to children aged 5 to 14. So far, 16 pools have been opened to the program for this summer. Quiggle said that it can be advantageous for families with small children to lend their pool, because their youngsters receive free swimming lessons. Lessons are scheduled only at the convenience of the pool owners.

Anyone interested in lending a pool or in swimming lessons may contact the CYO at 454-2030.

Pittsford Programs

The Allendale and The Columbia Schools in Pittsford have announced a wide range of educational, artistic, ecological and athletic programs for the summer months.

Outdoor hiking, crafts and field trips for children 5 and 6 and driver education and athletic camps for high schoolers have been scheduled, according to Robert J. Moore, summer programs director.

A wide variety of other activities are planned, ranging from classroom subjects, through arts, ecology, drama, typing, and a basketball camp.

Anyone seeking further information should call or write The Allendale and The Columbia Schools, 519 Allens Creek Road, Rochester, 14618.
