

Summer Masses

For the vacationers finding their summer fun within the diocese, some parishes have special summertime schedules. Four pastors responded positively to letters sent to all parishes outside Rochester inquiring about summer Masses, especially outdoor Masses at resorts or campgrounds.

Father Timothy Weider, pastor of Sacred Heart of Jesus Parish in Perkinsville, reported that he celebrates Mass at the Holiday Hill Campground during the summer months, usually at 5 p.m. Saturday.

Father Richard Hart, pastor of St. Patrick's Church in Cato and its mission, St. Thomas the Apostle in Red Creek, celebrates summer Masses at St. Jude Chapel in Fairhaven on Lake Ontario. The chapel is open from Memorial Day through Labor Day. Mass is celebrated at 7 p.m. Saturday and 11 a.m. Sunday.

In the Conesus Lake area, Father Jerome Schifferli named his three parishes that have special summer schedules. St. Joseph's in Livonia celebrates Mass at 5 p.m. Saturday and at 8 and 10 a.m. and 12:15 p.m. Sunday.

St. William's Church in Conesus has Mass at 10:30 a.m. Sunday.

At McPherson Point on Conesus Lake, St. Margaret's Chapel is open from Memorial Weekend through September. June Masses are celebrated at 7:30 p.m. Saturday and 10:30 a.m. Sunday. During July and August, Sunday Mass will be at 9 and 11 a.m. In September the chapel returns to the June schedule.

Father Gerard Gull, pastor of St. Joseph's Church in Campbell and St. Stanislaus in Bradford, wrote that his two churches sit almost in the center of an extensive and popular resort area, so that many vacationers make them their summer worship center. St. Stanislaus, just off route 226 past Savona, is accessible to resorters at Lake Salubria, Lake Lamoka, Keuka Lake, Mud Lake, and others. Masses are at 7 p.m. Saturday 11 a.m. Sunday. At St. Joseph's Mass is celebrated at 5 p.m. Saturday and 9 a.m. Sunday.
