

Aquinas Reunion

Guild Banquet

Joanne Paradies, past president of the Ladies Guild of St. Louis Church; Father John Reddington, pastor; Molly Burden, new president; and Father John Philipps, pastor of Nativity of the Blessed Virgin Mary Parish, pose for the camera at the group's annual Queenship of Mary Banquet held recently. Father Philipps was guest speaker.

Legion Awards

Thank You

Renilda Snyder, president of the Knights of Columbus Auxiliary in Dansville, thanks Ronald Powell, chairman of the Human Development Committee of St. Mary's Church, for his recent presentation on the work of his group to the women's organization.

Yearbook Salutes a Founder

The Nazareth College 1975 yearbook is dedicated to Sister Agnes Patricia, retired professor, as one of those "whose faith and spirit" made the college "a reality fifty years ago, and a continuing and appreciated one today."

Sigillum, was given to the founding Sister on May Day at the St. Joseph Motherhouse Infirmary.

Sister Agnes Patricia, who began her teaching career at Nazareth Academy, was a professor of French at the college and chairman of the Foreign Language Department. In later years, she served as registrar. She was educated at St. Elizabeth College, Canisius, Fordham and the Sorbonne in Paris. Her Ph.D. degree is from Fordham.
