Youtheatre's Summer Season

Youtheatre of the Rochester Community Players will kick off its 1975 season with an organizational, get-acquainted meeting at the Community Playhouse, 820 S. Clinton Ave. on Friday, June 6, at 7:30 p.m.

In its seventh year of operation, Youtheatre is open to all young persons of high school and college age (14-24) interested in the areas of theater production, including sets, lighting, costume, makeup, publicity and acting.

David Runzo, artistic director for Youtheatre '75, and the staff have planned an exciting and diversified schedule for the upcoming Summer months: The '75 season includes the following events: "The Mad Show", a frenzied and hilarious musical based on the famed iconoclastic humor magazine; three one-act plays, a potpourri of humor and drama; and "Our Town", Thornton Wilder's timeless American classic about life in a small town.

"The Mad Show" and "Our Town" will be performed at the Xerox Square Auditorium, downtown on July 11-12-13 and Aug. 8-9-10 respectively. The three one-act plays will be performed at the Playhouse on July 18-19.
