Trinity Council Plans 'Stein Scholarships'

Trinity Council #4618 of Webster is establishing a memorial scholarship fund in the name of its founder and first Grand Knight, James O. Stein, who died late last year of cancer.

A memorial Mass and Communion breakfast have been scheduled for Sunday, June 8 at 10 a.m. at Our Lady of Mercy High School Auditorium.

The celebrant of the Mass will be Bishop Dennis W. Hickey, and the main speaker at the breakfast will be James Foley, a supreme director of the K of C.

According to project chairman Joseph Van Chieri, "Jim Stein was a well loved individual in Rochester and surrounding suburbs. One of his fondest dreams was to establish a scholarship fund to aid deserving and needy children who desire to attend Catholic high schools in Rochester. We want to make it happen."

Stein was the Police Chief in Webster for 17 years. He was active in the K of C, the community and the Church throughout his life.

Reservations are required for the breakfast through Van Chieri at 671-4105.

WOMEN'S CLUB SETS INSTALLATION

Rose Pilato of Culver Road will be installed June 10 as president of the Italian Women's Civic Club. Her vice presidents are Lucille Zicari and Frances Pataky. Other new officers are FLorence Bianco, recording secretary; Julia Granato, corresponding secretary; Lucy Gallo, treasurer, and Mary Proia, board chairman. The installation is scheduled for 8 p.m. at the Americana, downtown.
