

K. of C. Plans Pilgrimage To Auriesville

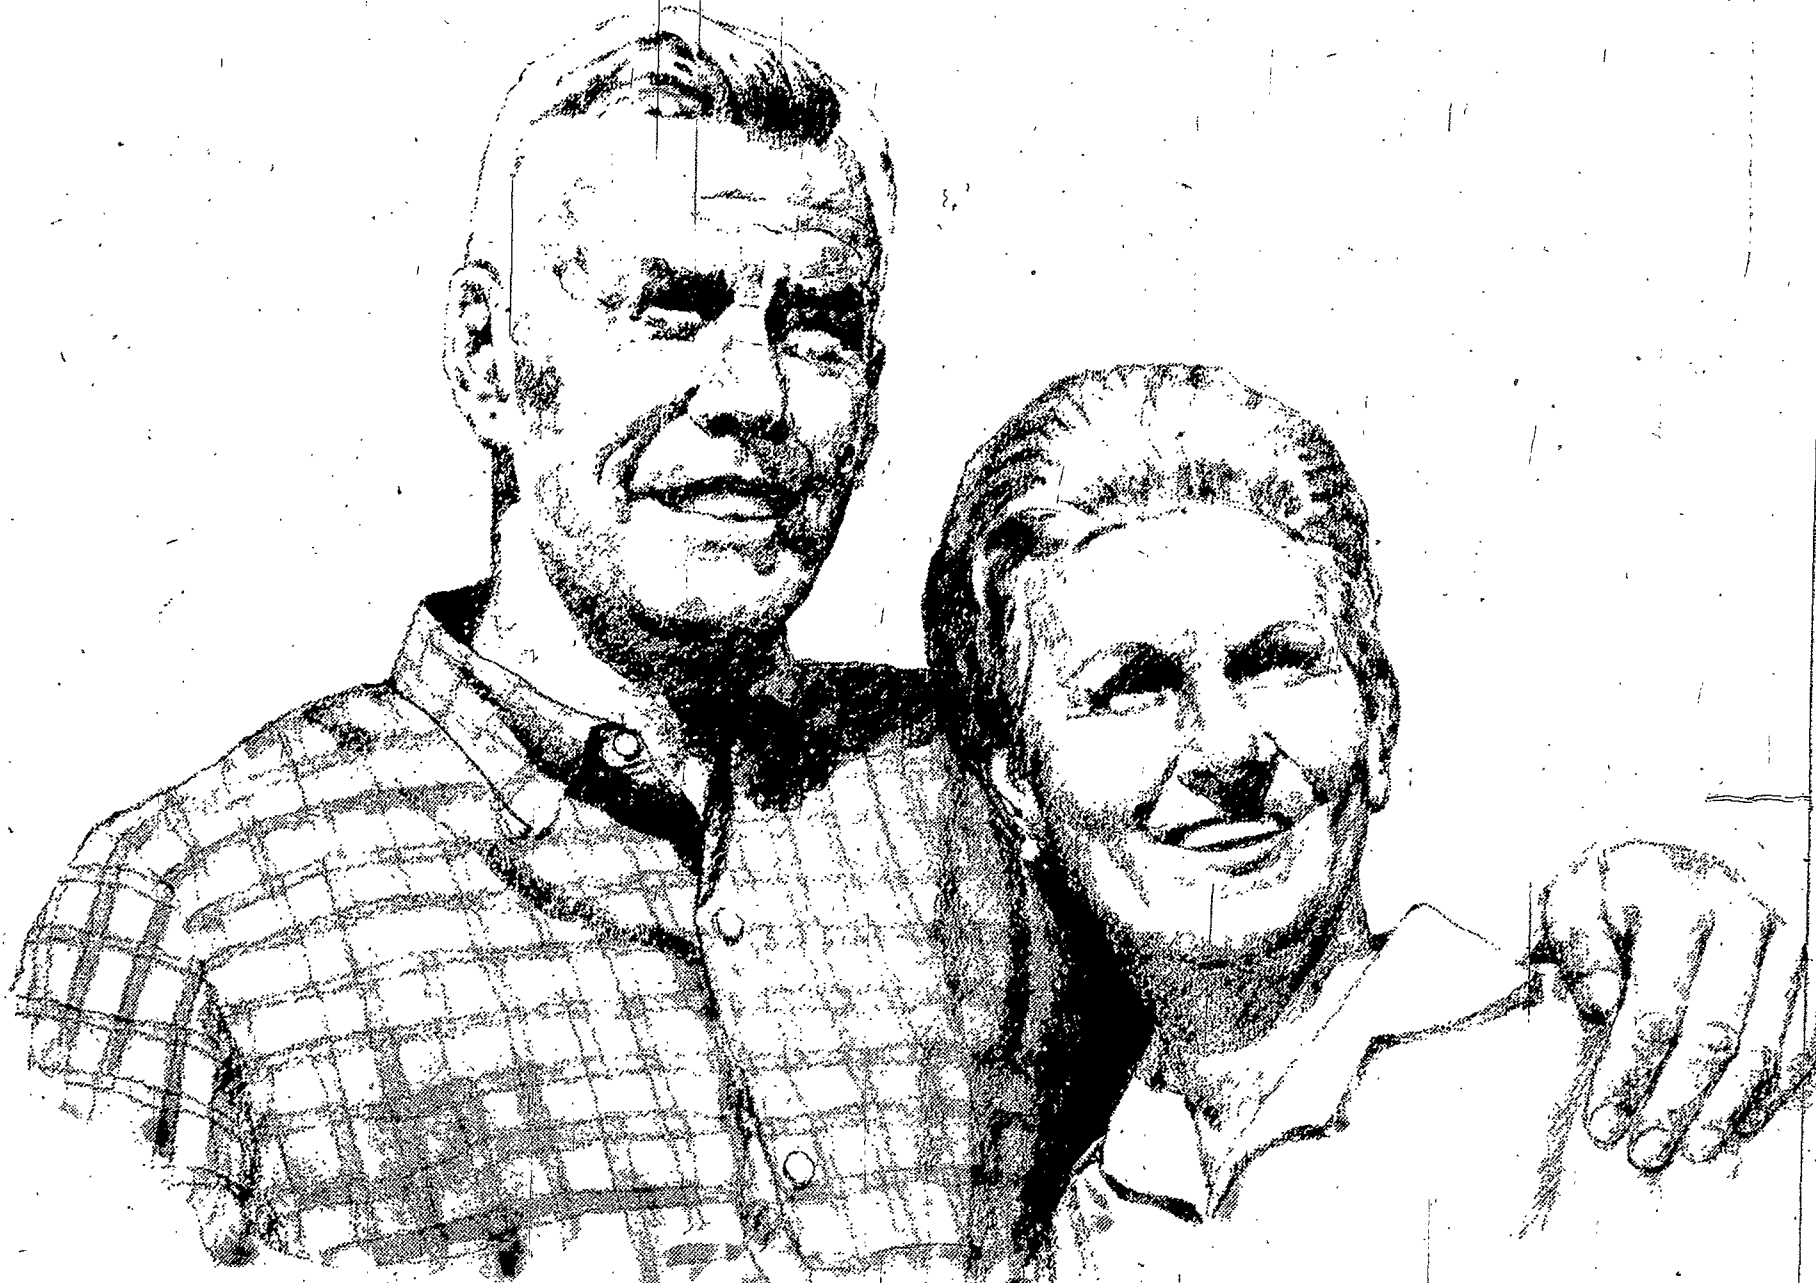

Knights of Columbus from local councils in more than a score of cities throughout the Empire State will assemble with their families at the National Shrine of the North American Martyrs in Auriesville on Sunday, Sept. 21, for their Holy Year

Pilgrimage. Bishop Edwin B. Broderick of Albany will offer the pilgrimage Mass in the Shrine Coliseum at 4:15 p.m., with a dozen priest-chaplains of the various councils concelebrating the mass with him. Father Alfred E. Smith, OSA, associate pastor of St. Augustine's Church, North Troy, and nephew of the governor whose name he bears, will address the pilgrims. Thomas P. Ryan of Jackson

Heights, Long Island, newly elected State Deputy for all the New York Councils of the Order, along with his staff members Andrew S. Fiacco of Massena; George J. Quinn, Jr. of Staten Island; Peter J. Fleming of the Bronx and William J. Hoffman of Cohoes will lead their Brother Knights in solemn procession through the historic grounds where the first saints of North America, the missionary — martyrs, Father Isaac Jogues and his companions, first preached the Gospel to the Mohawk Indians.
