

Tonette Brown of the Celebrate Life folk group at St. Mary Our Mother Church, Horseheads, sang during the festivities.

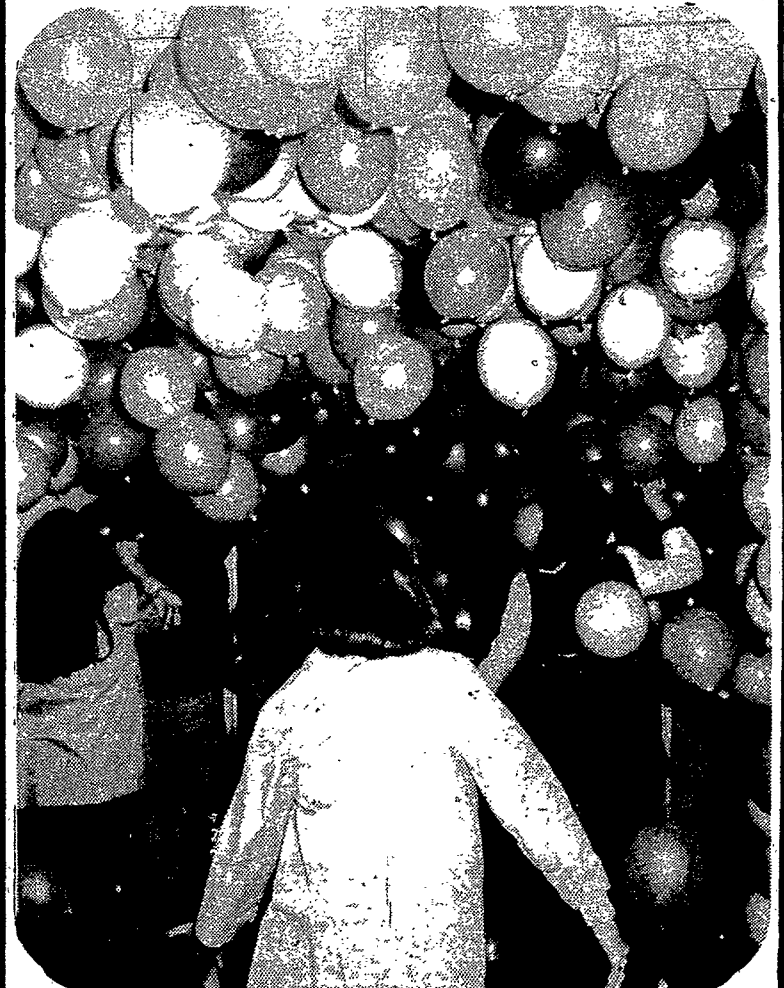

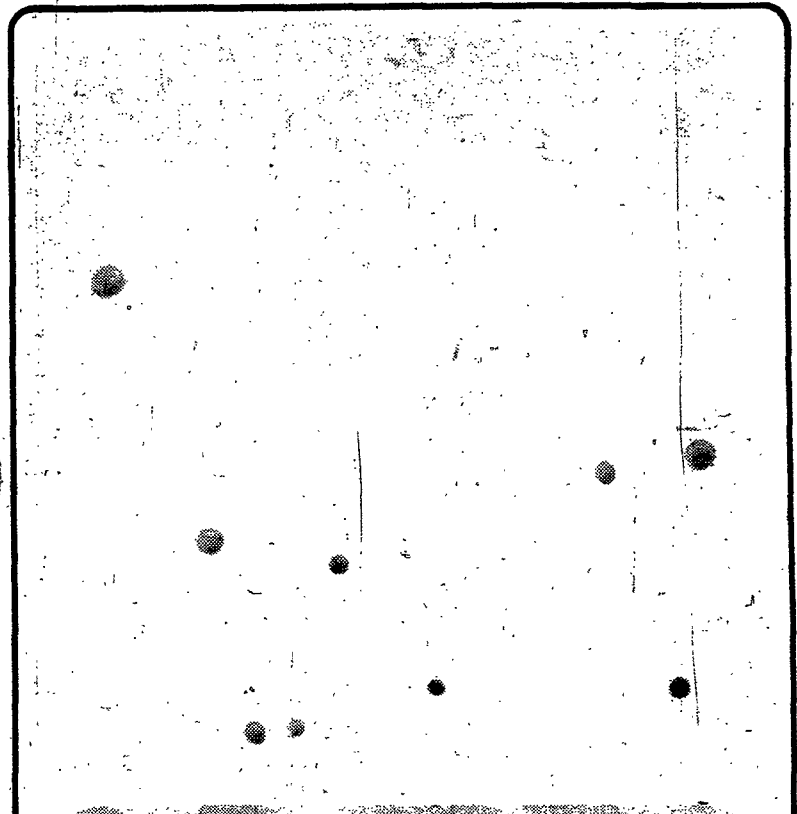

Sister Martha, Judson Leonard of the Ithaca Paid Firefighters, Sister Marie Michael, assistant administrator; Mrs. Jane Brainard, president of the Ithaca Paid Firefighters Auxiliary, and Judge Donahoe display a check for $3,500 given toward the proposed Burn Unit at the hospital.

Father Armstrong, nationally known television figure, meets with reporters.

Donahoe, Sister Margaret Adelaide Owen, board president; and Father Cyril Guise, director of the hospital's Office of Pastoral Care.

Seemingly lost in a sea of balloons, eighth graders from St. Patrick's School ready to release these symbols of the day from the roof garden, where helicopters landed three years ago to evacuate patients during the flood.