Pope Endorses Seven 'Saints'

Vatican City [RNS] - Pope Paul has given formal approval to decrees of the Vatican's Congregation for the Causes of Saints that concern the possible canonization or beatification of seven persons, among them, Blessed Sharbel Makhlouf, a Lebanese hermit of the Syro-Maronite Baladite Rite, who died in 1898.

The decrees declared the Church's acceptance of miracles attributed to the intercession of five of the seven. The Catholic Church ordinarily requires that a candidate's "heroic virtue" be attested by miracles - usually physical cures - worked in response to prayerful appeals to the candidate.

Father Sharbel Makhlouf was beatified by Pope Paul in 1965. Acceptance of a miracle attributed to his intercession advances the cause of his canonization.

When a person's "cause" has been introduced, there is a preliminary investigation into the life and works of the person. If the findings of the inquiry are deemed acceptable, the person is declared "Venerable."

They are:

* Venerable Gaspare Bertoni, priest and founder of the Congregation of the Priests of the Sacred Stigmata of Our Lord Jesus Christ. He was born at Verona in 1777, and died there in 1853.

* Venerable Vincenzo Grossi, a priest who founded the Institute of the Daughters of the Oratorio. He was born in Cremona in 1845 and died there in 1917.

* Venerable Joseph Moscati, a surgeon who taught at the University of Naples. He was born in 1880 and died in Naples in 1927.

* Venerable Sister Mary of the Divine Heart of the Institute of the Sisters of Charity of the Good Shepherd. She was born at Muenster in Westphalia in 1863 and died in Portugal in 1899.

Preliminary studies into the life and works of two other persons - an Italian layman and an Irish layman - as acceptable candidates for beatification and canonization, were approved of by the Vatican congregation.

They are Bartolo Longo from Brindisi (1841-1926) and Matthew (Matt) Talbot of Dublin, a recovered alcoholic, who was born in 1856 and died in 1925.
