Mark Gionta, freshman 'Football because it's fun too play. I think catching baseball as the leading American sport The Buffalo Bills are my favorite l really don't have a favorite player. I think Buffalo and Minnesota will wind up in the Super Bowl. If I played pro football I'd like to play the safety position because I feel I can run especially if I have to I think soccer is catching on a little more then it used to . . but I don't think it will ever be a leading sport in this country.

Tony Pignone, freshman favorite sport is baseball because it's a more complicated sport. You have to use your head to be good hitter. Baltimore ** favorite team.

Rico Petrocelli of the Boston Red Sox is my favorite player because he makes a lot of good plays at third base, he doesn't make many errors and he was a good hitter in the series. I think Babe Ruth is still the best of those who ever played the game of baseball.

Bob Hancock, freshman

"Baseball is my favorite sport. I've played it for years Baseball requires as much athletic ability as all the sports Baseball is still leading American sport. $ I didn't like the way the World Series came out. If I had been Johnson (manager of the Red Sox) as soon as Bill Lee started walking the batters I would have taken him out and played Tiant or another pitcher."

Steve Fornarola, freshman

Football is my because it's good for you, gets you shape and it's fun. My favorite. pro team is the Minnisota Vikings because they're the best and have a real good defense. Fran Tarkinton is my favorite he's almost up to Johnny Unitas in passing. It will be Buffalo and Minnesota in the Super Bowl

Fred Lauran, freshman

'Football It's a rough game and I like playing rough sports. My favorite team is the Pittsburgh Steelers I like: quartheir terback, Terry Bradshaw because he's a quarterback who calls a good game. The Super Bowl will see the Minnesota Vikings against the Pittsburgh Steelers: I don't think TV is overdoing football in it's programming.

JUDITH JONES Cardinal Mooney

Contestants

Judith Jones, a Cardinal Mooney senior, and Camille Zogby, a senior at Bishop Kearney, are two of the 18 semifinalists who will be competing for the Monroe County Junior Miss title on Nov. 7 at the Xerox Square Auditorium.

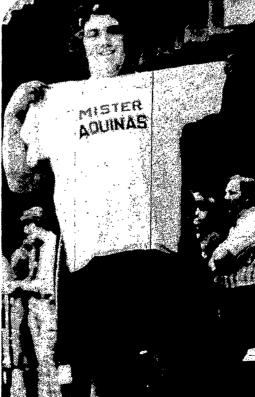

Miss Jones who endeavors to be a nurse practitioner plans to attend. Niagara University She is active in the National Honor Society, Action for People Association, and is a Student Council representative.

Miss Zogby is a member of the BK Student Council, belongs to the Latin and Drama clubs, and is captain of the cheerleading squad She plans to attend Oswego State Teachers' College and is looking forward to a career in social work

The Junior Miss program annually selects those high school senior girls who clearly represent today's ideals of American youth. The contestants are judged on intelligence, poise, creativity, and scholastic achievement

CAMILLE ZOGBY Bishop Kearney

Aguinas' answer to the "Homecoming Queen" is senior Mike Brownyard. His statistics, 54-48-52. On right, Pete Lowenguth flexes his arm muscles during the competition.
