Walk-Along Scheduled

Notre Dame High School along with five schools in the Chemung County Catholic School System will participate in a Walk-Along on Saturday, Dec. 6.

The walkers will include students, principals, pastors, and other interested adults.

Sponsorship for a walker will be $1 regardless of the distance walked. The event is a money-raiser for the schools.

Further information can be obtained from Alex Olszowy, chairman, at 734-9587.

Aquinas Stage Thriller

The Aquinas Performing Arts Club will stage its first show of the season as a kickoff to their Agatha Christie Festival they will sponsor this year. The club will perform "The Unexpected Guest," one of Agatha Christie's greatest suspense holders.

Our first in a series of three chiller mysteries will be performed on Friday and Saturday evenings, Dec. 5 and 6 in the Aquinas auditorium — 1127 Dewey Ave. Showtime will be at 8 p.m. both nights and all seats are reserved.

Speakers Awarded

Elmira — In accordance with the celebration of the Bicentennial, students from Notre Dame took an active role in the Bicentennial Youth Debates.

N.D.'s two winners were Sue Hull, persuasive speaking, and Eric Olson, Lincoln — Douglas debates. Both Sue and Eric received $25 bonds from the Ladies of Charity.

Anthony Pucci, who has organized the debates at Notre Dame, feels that the school is well-represented and has high hopes that they will move into district and sectional competition.
