THE OPEN WINDOW

Fr. Louis Hohman

Dear Father,

With all the furor about Catholics and contraception today, I wasn't surprised to see the subject come up again in your column. I was surprised to read your erroneous statement about the new promotion of the old rhythm method. It may have been just a poor choice of words but it's an important point and I can't let it slip by. So if I may—

Calendar rhythm will never be an acceptable means of spacing children because it simply doesn't work for most couples. To revive it would be to perform a great disservice to humanity!

What IS being promoted is Natural Family Planning, specifically, Sympto-Thermic Method. The only point S-T has in common with rhythm is the necessity for periodic abstinence.

A normal, healthy man is fertile all the time. His wife, theoretically, is only fertile 12 to 24 hours (when an egg is present) in each menstrual cycle. Success in NFP is found when a couple can determine that time in a cycle when their fertility is "equal" and then to observe abstinence until that time has passed. The factors which affect their fertility consist of bodily changes in the woman—physical signs (symptoms) which she can learn to detect and interpret without the use of any devices. The basal temperature recordings [thermic] enable them to recognize the completion of the fertile phase.

NFP provides a couple with an awareness of their God-given fertility and enables them to consciously achieve or postpone pregnancy. Sympto-Thermic NFP, learned and practiced by a loving and mutually motivated couple, is revealing percentages of effectiveness which rank most favorably with most methods of artificial contraception. And it can be used through all stages of the child-bearing years.

Sincerely yours,
K. McM. [RN]

Dear K.McM.

Thank you for your very interesting letter. More help along this line is available through the Office of Family Life, 50 Chestnut Street, Rochester, 14604. If any of you other readers have comments to make on this particular subject we would be delighted to hear from you.
