Mooney Rockettes danced to a patriotic program as they high-stepped it through "I'm a Yankee Doodle Dandy," "You're a Grand Old Flag," and "This Is My Country."

Winter Activity:

A Cure for the Doldrums

By JOAN M. SMITH

While Rochester's population struggles through the last mean vestiges of winter, Cardinal Mooney and Our Lady of Mercy High Schools buzz with activity. Some cultural, some mischievous but all in good fun.

On Thursday, March 4, Mercy held a music day in conjunction with Music in Our Schools Week. Open rehearsals involving glee club, orchestra, and individual performers were held throughout the day for the student body.

Between classes and during study halls, Mercians relaxed in the auditorium listening to the variety of sounds produced by their fellow classmates. Voices blended with violins, pianos, flutes, and trumpets in presenting all types of musical interpretations.

The day's festivities closed with an evening concert which featured the expertise of those in Mercy's music programs.

Friday, March 5, was senior "100 days" over at Cardinal Mooney where the 1976 graduates began their day with a 6 a.m. breakfast at Perkins Pancake House. Then it was on to school for short classes and a talent show followed by a luncheon.

School halls had a carnival-like appearance with their decorations of fancy streamers and colorful balloons. The seniors lent a fashionable air to the classrooms as they were the epitome of style in their mod outfits.

The highlight of the day was a variety program which spanned the entertainment spectrum from bicentennial comedy skits led by Charlene Zorch, to a rock group headed by the dynamic Kevin Reynolds, to the mood music solos of Eileen Duffy who sang "Mahogany" and Bruce Brooks' piano rendition of "Deep Purple."

Laughter, comradeship, and a little bit of impishness were the order of the day as the seniors had a great time poking fun at the faculty and themselves. But behind it all was a sense of nostalgia for their Mooney years which will be coming to an end all too soon.

What Victor Borge does to the piano, Bill Keanen does to the guitar, only with "rock and roll" musical satire.

Members of the Mercy Glee Club gave their voices a workout during the school's Music Day as they performed during the day and then gave an evening concert.
