CITY-CATHOLIC BOYS BOWLING Thursday, March 25

Marshall vs. McQuaid; Mooney vs. Jefferson; Edison vs. Aquinas; East vs. Charlotte; Kearney vs. Franklin; Madison vs. Monroe.

Marimba and xylophone players, Tom Penella, John Aiello, Cosmo DiLiegro, Jack Zolnierowski, and Ken Brooks spent many hours practicing not only for the Aquinas concert but for the band's three day Toronto tour, which starts Wednesday, March 31. They will present programs at Loretto College School, St. Paul's, Dante Alighieri Academy, and St. Joseph High School. They will be overnight guests in Canadian homes.

Unique Music In Concert

The Aquinas Institute Concert Band under the direction of John Lyon will hold its annual spring concert on Sunday, March 28 at 8 p.m. in the Aquinas auditorium. The performance will include music from three different centuries.

The program will open with the Philip Browne march, "Suite No. 2" which was written a century ago in honor of the then major general, Ulysses S. Grant. This musical performance will be followed by two 17th Century madrigals by Thomas Morely, and then the band will swing into a popular vein with the score from "Jaws."

Joining Aquinas for this concert will be the Nazareth Academy Band under the direction of Sister Beverly Jones. Combined, the bands will play "The Spirit of '76" an arrangement of traditional American melodies.

A concert feature will be "African Trilogy," an original composition written by Peter Candela, a 1973 Aquinas graduate. The center section of the band in performing this score will be patterned after the ancient African marimba bands. Wind instruments will be used to produce sounds of the African jungle as the composition brings together both ancient and modern Africa.

Aquinas sophomore Karl Weekes and senior Steve Friedman capture the unusual beat of the "African Trilogy" which was composed by Pete Candela especially for the concert.

Honors from Chicago!

The Bishop Kearney "Marching Kings" won best performance in last week's St. Patrick's Day Parade held in Chicago. They had been invited to participate in the event by Chicago Mayor Richard J. Daley. The band greeted Mayor Daley and Vice President Nelson Rockefeller by changing formation in front of the reviewing stand and playing "America." The above photo shows the "Marching Kings" giving a special performance at Xerox Square in November.
