

Busy Weekend At Mercy Parish Bishop Subs

While the parish staff and council of Our Lady of Mercy spent last weekend on retreat for intensive goal planning, an unusual substitute shouldered parish liturgies for the weekend — Bishop Joseph L. Hogan.

Father Michael Conboy, the bishop's secretary, and OLM's deacon intern, Mr. Dennis Hayes, joined Bishop Hogan to make up the weekend team at the church.

Where they met.

Charts helped depict parish priorities.

To discuss the various parish areas of concern, the Mercy staff and council organized into four groups. The Parish Life group was composed of, from left, Father Charles Latus, co-pastor; Jack Moriarty, Parish Council president; Mary Specksgoor, Betty Johnson, Marty Mulhern.

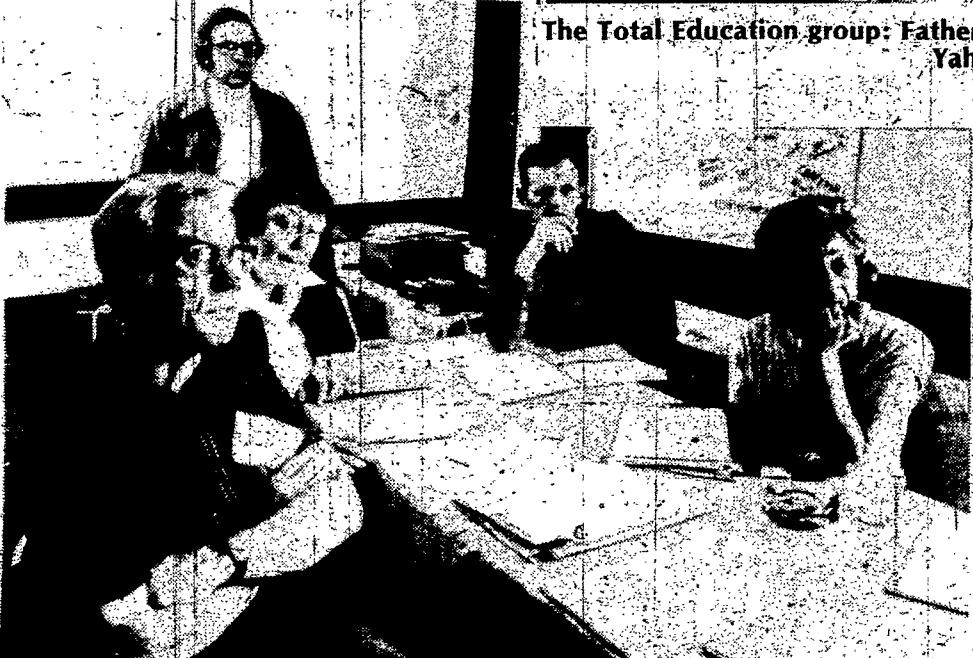

Rev. Larry Witmer coordinated the retreat. He is a community minister for the Monroe County Baptist Association and serves as a planning consultant.

Photos this Page
By Ben Susso

The Total Education group: Father William J. Amann, co-pastor; Mrs. Richard Prem; Richard Yahn; Bill Marchetti; Bob Solan.

The Worship group consists of, from left, seated, Paul J. Infantino; Sister Ruth Busshaus; Fred Schleich; Alma Mariano. In rear is Rev. Larry Witmer, who coordinated the retreat.

From left are members of the Human Development group: Art Beane, Raymond Pochierer, Margaret Servas, Jeffrey Zapf, Sister Marie Martin.