

CFM Drug Abuse Course

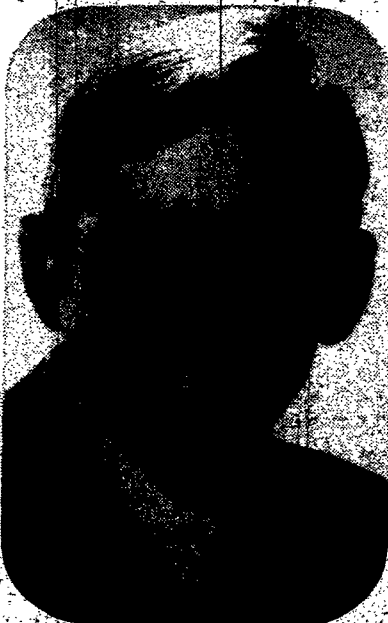

The Christian Family Movement has announced availability of a program for parents to help their children avoid drug abuse. The course involves groups of parents meeting for six sessions dealing with the various aspects of drug abuse. The participant's book, group facilitator's guidelines ($2.95 each) and a supplementary cassette titled "The Value-Able Family" ($1.95) are available from the Christian Family Movement, 1655 W. Jackson Blvd., Chicago, Illinois 60612. Representatives for CFM in the Rochester diocese are James and Mary Sue Govola, 114 Bartle Ave., Newark (315) 331-8892.

Central Trust can fix it. Quickly.

If you're thinking of fixing up or sprucing up, adding on or moving on, but you just don't have the necessary cash, then Central Trust has the answer: a Central Trust Home Improvement loan.

You can borrow up to $10,000 from Central Trust to make additions or improvements to your home whenever you're ready. In fact, Central Trust will approve your loan and give you 90 days to shop for exactly what you want. And if, after 90 days of shopping, you find you'd rather do-it-yourself, no problem. Whatever your plans, Central Trust will loan you the money at a rate guaranteed for 90 days after loan approval.

For your loan application, stop in or phone any office of Central Trust. Or, mail this handy coupon. Complete the application and return it. We'll send you your letter of approval, which you can exchange for a check at any branch of Central Trust. If you prefer, we'll transfer your loan directly into your Central Trust checking account, if you have one.

At Central Trust making your life easier is our business, and we've all types of personal loans available for your particular needs, whether it's for a house-lift or a face-lift or a vacation to lift your spirits.

Borrow money our easy way. From Central Trust. Stop in or call 263-4326. Then take it easy.
