On Parade

The Aquinas Color Guard gets in step for an appearance with the band in the Memorial Day Parade which will be held in Downtown Rochester on Monday, May 31.

Nazareth Happenings

NEWSPAPER AWARDED
Nazareth Academy's school newspaper, "The Gabriel", was awarded a first place certificate by the Columbia Scholastic Press Association in its 52nd annual contest.

high school career by the Monroe County Council, Veterans, of Foreign Wars.

At the thirty-first annual Merit Awards Dinner held May 1 at the Chamber of Commerce the students were saluted as the "future leaders of our community." Rev. Stephen Martin of Aquinas Institute offered the invocation and Raymond J. Boddy, Past Commander of the Hilton Parma Memorial Post No. 6105, served as toastmaster.

Guest speaker Sheriff William Lombard commended the students and then asked the parents to stand to be recognized for their role in fostering their youngsters' leadership. Each student was presented with a pin and a certificate of merit. Monroe County Voice of Democracy contest winner Kevin Donovan, a senior from Aquinas, read his winning entry.

The CSPA rates publication entries on their own merits and in comparison to others in the same classification. A workbook/scorebook is used so the judge can provide positive, constructive criticism and make comments and suggestions which enable the staff to use the contest as a learning experience.

The "Gabriel" received 917 of a possible 1,000 points: 231 of 250 for content/coverage; 380 of 400 for writing/editing; and 306 of 350 for design/display.

DANCE TIME

The Junior Prom took place Saturday, May 8, at the Holiday Inn on West Ridge Road. "Precious and Few" was the theme chosen by the Juniors and "Freeway" provided the music. Margaret Camelio was crowned Prom Queen by Richard Loewenguth, father of Junior Class President, Mary Loewenguth. Margaret received a bouquet of six red roses. Her attendants, chosen by each junior homeroom, were Lori Sailer, Peg Lober, Carol Fede, Roseann Fornarola, Isa, Colilli, Natalie Vallone, Jackie Dobson, Florine Grisanello, and Joanne Arlauckas.

POETS HONORED

Winners of Nazareth Academy's "Spectrum" Poetry Contest for 1976 have been announced. First Place was merited by senior Joan Marie Marchesoni for "A Stitch in Time Saves Nine." Senior Anne Marie Howard Davis won second place with "Tuesday." Junior Mary Ellen Bragg received third place honors for "Fat" and senior Debbie Nicolucci placed fourth with her "I Hear America Singing II."

Honorable Mentions were awarded to Ivana Mariani for "Susan Brownell Anthony," Joan Marie Marchesoni for "The Tempest," Anne Marie Howard Davis for "With the Dawn," Mary Rose Dispenza for "Alone," Barbara Naschke for "Guitar Player," and Kathy Woloszyn for "Mary Jamieson." Entries were reviewed by the staff of the "Spectrum" and then sent to English teacher Sister Mariel for final selection. The poems are currently posted in the English Resource Room and winning poems will be published in the school's literary annual "The Spectrum."

LEADERSHIP REWARDED

Seniors Laurie Damaschke and Marlene De Coninck were chosen by a faculty committee to be honored for the leadership qualities they demonstrated during their
