Stage Wizardry

Miss Teresa Bigley's first grade class at St. Mary's, Auburn, acts out "The Wizard of Oz," in costume, for patients at the Auburn Nursing Home. The re-enactment of stories is part of the Open Court Reading Series and brings a few moments of relaxation to patients while students develop a sense of service to the community. At right, the cast gets a little puffery.

Quilt

Cenacle to Host "Effective Living"

An Effective Living Seminar, a self-awareness program, will be presented at the Cenacle Retreat House the weekend of June 11 and 12 by Sister Muriel Brennan of the Chicago Cenacle.

According to material issued by the Cenacle, "Contrary to much we have learned in traditional Christianity, the average person does not like himself best of all. Sometimes his self-image is so low he actually hates himself. And how can we grow and succeed in human relations when we are taught to 'love our neighbor as ourselves' when we thoroughly dislike ourselves?"

The seminar is designed to encourage persons to better self-images. Reservations for the course and further information are available through Sister Marie Halligan at the Cenacle.

The seminar, developed by John Boyle of Los Angeles has been widely used in industry.

The weekend is open to both men and women.

Stella Maris Schedules Open House
