Girls' Section Five

Saturday, May 29 was an exciting and exhausting day for the girl athletes who competed in Section Five track finals. Dedication and a fine competitive spirit were the orders of the day as athletes from western New York converged on Brockport High School's field to compete in their respective meets. Upper left: Mercians Katie Forsythe (880 relay), Michelle Miller (long jump), Mary Starkweather (hurdles), Debbie Pavone (one mile); Bishop Kearney's team included Lisa Bouchard (440 relay), Maureen McVeigh (two mile), Cathy Muller (440), Gail Cronin (440 relay), and friend Denise Cordaro. Center photo: BK's Gail Cronin and J. Abel Noun discuss strategy before relay race. Right center photo is BK's Maureen McVeigh and Cardinal Mooney's Denise Smith receiving instructions for the two-mile race. Then it's off and running! Dresser (3rd on right) from South Seneca High School, Interlaken, N.Y., came in first place and Smith (on right) took second.

McQuaid Awards

On Tuesday, June 1, McQuaid Jesuit High School held its annual Awards Assembly. Students received awards in academics, community services, sports, drama and music. The musical art wood collage (above), which decorates the main hall, was dedicated to Sister Margaret Mary Ganley (left) for her "time and effort" devoted to the students. On right, Tim Jordan presents Father Leon Hogenkamp, principal, with the City Catholic League athletic trophy which the school has won three years in a row.
