

Rev. Leonard Evans, of Pleasant Valley Evangelical Church in Niles, O., speaks at the fellowship luncheon

Carl Jennejahn holds his son Matthew

Wilma Higgs, Ruth Hauser, Gertrude Erz and Pat Thomas

Dave Logan plays his guitar

Phyllis Logan sings

Kathy Schumacher at the microphone

Jan Jaska at microphone as coordinator for the event

One in C

What makes an event "one in Christ"?

Would it be because all the Christian churches in the area not only participate but also join in planning?

Would it be because every age group takes part, from babies to senior citizens?

Would it be because a Christian effort also should draw the greater community together?

Would it be because members of diverse religious communities join together to praise their common God?

If the answer is "yes" to these questions then the celebration the weekend of June 4-6, a project of the Ogden area churches, definitely merited the title One in Christ.

Every clergyman in the area took part. The following churches joined in planning and participating: Assembly of God, First Congregational, Ogden Presbyterian, Ogden Baptist, Parma Baptist, St. John the Evangelist, Spencerport Wesleyan, Trinity Lutheran, United Methodist, United Methodist of Spencerport.

serv
ent
thro
help

Leo
Nile strip

Joy
Bus

that ask wan inve

of e

firm