

Sister Mary Patricia of Holy Ghost and Doris Rafoth, St. Francis Xavier during workshop.

Eugene Wickes (l), Holy Spirit, Penfield and John Milne, St. Ambrose during coffee break.

TEXT BY MICHAEL GRODEN
PHOTOS BY SUSAN MCKINNEY

ins With You

Other members of the St. Mary's delegation were equally enthusiastic. Sister Marie Albert, said, "The two main speakers were deeply spiritual men, and that she was certainly glad she came and I wish more people could have been here."

Father Hoffman summarized the weekend by saying that it was a "significant moment in the process of growth in parish leadership in the diocese. A significant moment for growth in unity."

"I'm delighted at the way the program has turned out. I also found gratifying the encouraging words from many different people on the programs and speakers."

The contribution of the group from Apalachin goes without saying.

Bishop Hogan and Patricia Schmidt, staff coordinating committee, share a joke outside Our Lady of Mercy.

Msgr. George Cocuzzi and Rev. Charles Perrine, Presbytery of Genesee Valley, taking a break from discussion.

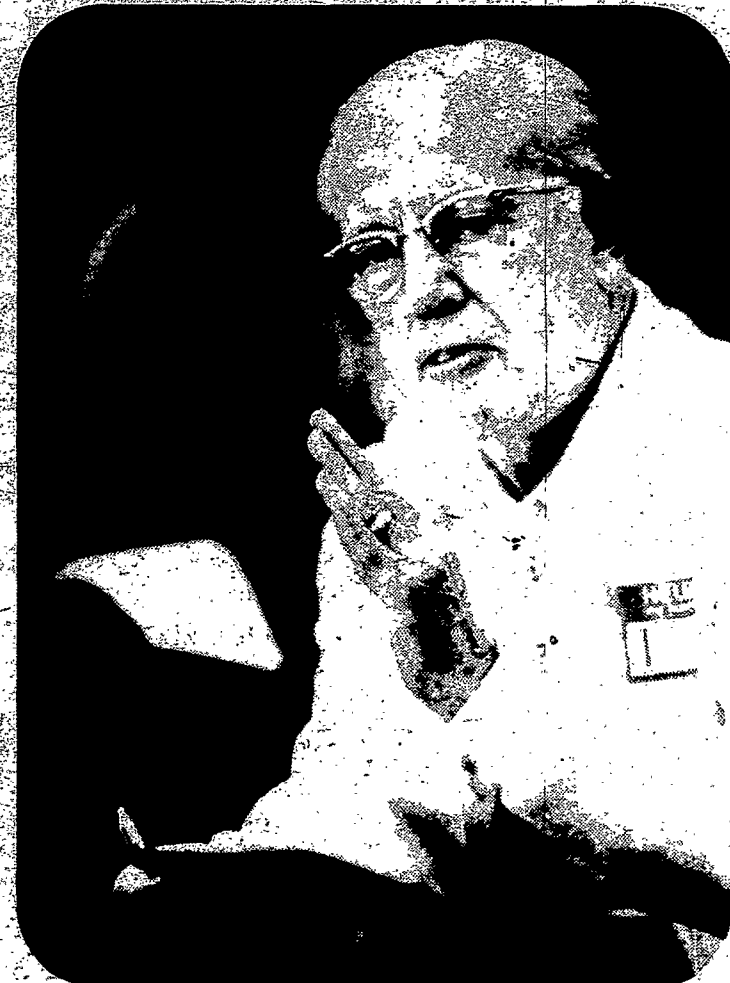

Father Ronald P. Harley, St. Paul, Webster.

David Jensen, Blessed Sacrament.

Ed Gutman, St. Paul, Webster and Patricia Sullivan, St. Patrick, Aurora, and St. Michael, Union Springs, engage in a lively discussion.

Edward W. Doane, St. Michael, Newark, makes a point during group sharing session.