

Fr. Murphy Named Notre Dame Chaplain

Elmira — Father Richard Murphy, who has served here throughout the 11 years of his priesthood, is the new chaplain at Notre Dame High School.

Announcing his appointment last week, Sister Mary Walter, principal, noted that he was well known to the students and said that he would "enrich our school life, give renewed spiritual leadership and add a much needed priestly dimension."

Father Murphy succeeds Father

Michael L. Reagan, who died last May. He will continue as chaplain at Corning Community College.

He is a native of Brooklyn and a graduate of the University of Rochester, where he received a bachelor's degree in history in 1959. He was graduated from St. Bernard's Seminary and ordained for this diocese in 1965. Assigned to St. Patrick's as an assistant, he became involved in the campus ministry at Elmira College, 1965-72, and has worked with the Corning students since 1970. He lives at St. Casimir's.

Regional Highlights

NORTHEAST

A Mass of Unity for all renewal groups in the Northeast region will be concelebrated at 4 p.m. on Sunday, Oct. 3 at St. Francis Xavier Church on Bay Street. Members of the Cursillo Movement, Marriage Encounter, Legion of Mary, Better World, Charismatic Prayer Groups, Teen Seminars, Christian Family Movement and others who are helping in the renewal of Christian life in the Church will attend. Choirs from the Black Ministries and Spanish Apostolate are planning to join the celebration.

An informational meeting on Natural Family Planning will begin at 8 p.m. on Friday, Sept. 17, at St. John of Rochester School Hall, 18 Wickford Way, Fairport. NEF is a church approved and supported program for family planning which uses up-to-date scientific data.

GOLDEN WEDDING

The lady who has played the organ at St. Dominic's, Shortsville, for more years than her son can remember, marked 50 years of marriage last Sunday with a celebration that began at the 9:30 Mass.

She is the former Alice Terry of Hornell, wife of John Boardman. They live in Manchester. Their children, Richard Boardman, Margaret Vienna and Monica Romeser, arranged a family dinner for them at Marvin's Country Club in Macedon and an open house at the Shortsville Legion Home. Mr. Boardman is retired from the Lehigh Valley Railroad and from an insurance business.

Anyone interested may call Sheila Kinsky, 381-3467 or Sue Staropoli, 381-1649.

The first Regional Assembly of the 1976-77 season is scheduled for Oct. 18 at St. Rita's in Webster.

TOMPKINS-TIOGA

A regional assembly program for delegates and parish council members will begin at 2 p.m. on Sunday, Oct. 17. Father Douglas Hoffman, director of Pastoral Ministry, will be the principal speaker.

Father Albert Cason, regional coordinator, announced that the Tompkins-Tioga region will begin a newsletter to be sent to all delegates, parish council members, priests, nuns, Father Hoffman, diocesan offices and all committee chairpersons, religious education administrators and anyone else in a leadership position in the region. The first edition is due in mid-September.

The next regional meeting will be at 7:30 p.m. on Thursday, Sept. 16 at St. Patrick's Rectory. Regional goals will be discussed.

LUNCHEON

The Catholic Women's Club of Rochester will launch its 1976-77 season Saturday, Sept. 18, with a luncheon at Oak Hill Country Club at 12:30 p.m. Members and non-members are invited to the event. Father Joseph D'Aurizio, moderator, will speak on the topic "Convicted of Christianity."

Alumni Invited To Open House

Everyone who ever went to St. Monica's School on Genesee Street is invited to an open house this Saturday evening, Sept. 18, in the school gymnasium. A Mass at 5 p.m. for the living and the dead, will bring to mind that thousands of people have passed through the school in its 77 years.

Organizers of this first alumni party envision it as an annual event. They include Veronica Fogerty Miller and Ellen Ort Caster, general chairmen; Dorothy Lenahan Graham, in charge of tickets; Lois Frey Taylor, publicity, and representatives of various graduation classes.

Sister Clare Francis, Mogenhan, principal, said, "Reservations would be appreciated, but everyone should feel free to come anyway." A donation of $5 is asked.

For reservations: Sister Clare Francis, at school, 235-4140, or at the convent, 235-8510; Mrs. Miller, 889-3586; Mrs. Caster, 429-1951; Mrs. Graham, 235-7094.

GOD'S CREATURES

In the spirit of their patron's Song of Brother Sun, the St. Francis Fraternity will celebrate the blessing of animals after a 2:30 p.m. Mass Sunday, Sept. 19, at St. Theresa's Church, 8 Mark St. All are invited to bring their pets.
