

At the North American College in Rome in 1950. At extreme left is the present ordinary of the diocese, Bishop Joseph L. Hogan. Others, from left, are Msgr. Richard K. Burns, Bishop Kearney, Bishop M. J. O'Connor, rector of the North American College, Msgr. George Eckl, Msgr. Joseph J. Sullivan, Father C. Lafferty of Little Rock, of the college staff, and Father William Hart.

Speaking at the Holy Name rally at Red Wing Stadium in 1949.

J. Harold Coleman, chairman of the St. Andrew's Seminary building fund, Bishop Kearney, and Frank Wolfe.

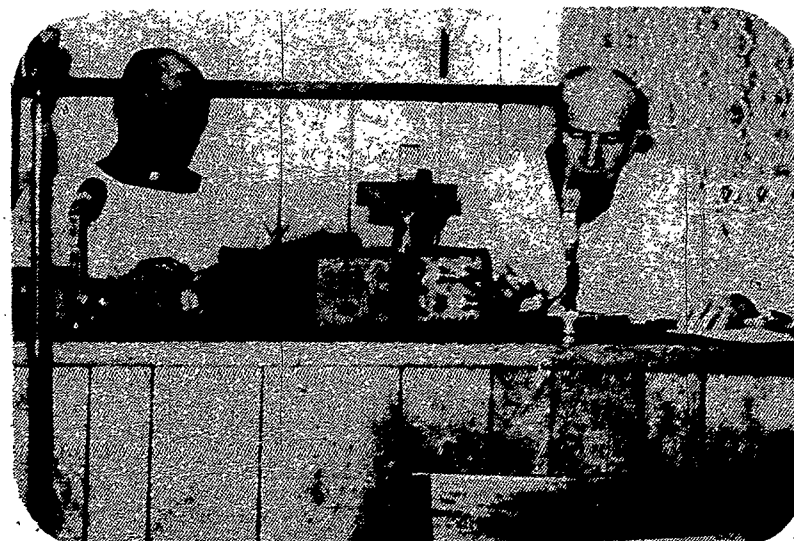

With the then Father Lawrence B. Casey at his side, Bishop Kearney confirms sailors at a wartime ceremony at Sampson Naval Training Center.

... with Msgr. Leo Schwab

With Bishop Walter Foery of Syracuse.

Bishop Kearney's meditations on the mysteries of the Rosary drew radio audiences throughout the diocese. Here, he is shown with the founder of the Family Rosary for Peace, Msgr. Joseph Cirrincione.