

OUR ALUMNI

Our alumni have given Saint Bernard's Seminary a great source of inspiration. Many of our graduates have gone on to other institutions of higher learning to continue their studies. Among the institutions our alumni have attended are:

Catholic University of America in Washington, D.C. • University of Rochester Louvain (Belgium) • Gregorian University in Rome • Jerusalem • Niagara University St. John's University in New York • Syracuse University • Cornell University • Boston College • St. Bonaventure • Columbia University • Colgate Rochester Divinity School • University of Detroit • Fordham University • Institute Catholique de Paris • University of Buffalo • University of Southern California • LeMoyne • Princeton Theological Seminary • University of Hartford • Assumption College • Fribourg, Switzerland • University of Connecticut University of Rhode Island • Buffalo State University of Chicago • Harvard • University of Belgrade Yugoslavia • Rutgers University Nazareth College • East Carolina University Brockport State • St. Joseph College in West Hartford, Connecticut • University of Western New Mexico • Cortland State University of Florida • Duke University.

Our alumni have served the church faithfully. Many are laborers in the vineyard of the Lord as dedicated parish ministers. Still others have held other positions, both civic and ecclesiastical. Among these are:

U. S. Military • National Association of Catholic Chaplains • Chancellors • Rectors of Seminaries • Campus Ministries • Vicar Generals • Missionaries • Weekly newspaper columnists • Weekly radio religious programs • Members of National Councils on Alcoholism and the Aging • Guidance Counselors • Teachers • Religious Education Coordinators • Professors • State Representatives • Bankers • Auditors • State Probation Training Consultant • Sales Managers • College Vice President for Student Development • Specialists in Corrective Reading, Teaching the Handicapped • Directors of Community Services.

We are indeed proud of our alumni, for these graduates, both clerical and lay, have contributed greatly to God and country.
