Some moments to relish

- The sight of three little boys in the pew behind you falling all over themselves in order to exchange the sign of peace.
- The break in a child's fever.
- The sight through the window of the puppy gamboling.
- Hearing any of your children communicating in a manner so polite as to make Emily Post envious.
- Ripping March off the calendar and seeing April staring you in the face.
- Spotting the first robin, the first crocus, the first anything signaling the end of winter and the beginning of spring.

• Listening to your budding musicians attempt to emulate the Carpenters, Barry Manilow, John Travolta when they think no one is around.

• Eating a meal, any meal, the head of the house has prepared.

• Discovering a can of coffee at the back of the stack the box boy forgot to mark with the new higher price.

• Doing the week's laundry and finding less than 20 towels in the hamper.

• Learning that the percentage of smokers has finally decreased somewhat.

• And realizing that your chance for a career has not slipped by... it's right in front of you — a three-headed wonder spilling Wheaties all over the kitchen table, teasing the dog into a tizzy and yelling from the front hall that both arms are full of books and could somebody please open the door.

Southeast DCG Celebrates Birthday

The Divorced, Separated and Widowed Catholics group of the Southeast Region celebrated their first birthday on March 20. The Mass and social afterwards drew 100 persons, including members of other divorced and separated groups who joined the celebration at St. John's, Humboldt St.

Special guests at the party, which sent nearly everyone away with a door prize, were members of the St. Charles Borromeo group, the newly formed group at St. Monica's, Sister Kathleen Kircher, diocesan coordinator of ministry to the divorced and separated, and Sister Judy Morgan of Good Shepherd, Henrietta. Sister Judy was "singled out for her continuing support of our group," according to Rita Lewis.

The Mass was offered by Father James Boyle of St. John's. Serving as lector was Sister Marlene Vigna; Rita Lewis, Joyce Luce and Grace Principino also were readers.

Reflecting on the group's first year, the organization notes that its mailing list has reached 350 persons, and that it averages 45 at each meeting. Included as meeting topics have been communication, adjusting to new life styles, annulment, and finances.

Regional Highlights

North Region

Three new North Region Delegates were introduced at the March 17 regional assembly. They are Frank McAlpin, Christ the King, Judith Dewey and Susan Schager, St. Cecilia.

Deaths

D. J. Meagher

Daniel J. Meagher, a building contractor who put up many of the churches and schools in this diocese, died March 26, 1977, at St. Ann's Home, after a brief illness. He was 89 years old.

Mr Meagher's home was on East Avenue in Brighton, and he was a member of St. Thomas More Church. The Mass of Christian Burial was celebrated there March 29.

Father Daniel F. Holland, associate pastor at St. Thomas the Apostle, has accepted the position of director of ministry for divorced and separated persons in the region.

Retreat Scheduled

The annual Closed Weekend Retreat sponsored by the Women's Retreat League has been scheduled for May 20-22 at Our Lady's Villa in Mt. Pocono, Pa.

Father Bartholomew J. O'Brien, pastor of St. Mary Our Mother in Horseheads, will be the retreat master. Transportation will be by automobile.

Anyone seeking further information should contact Mrs. Marguerite Backes, 312 Webber Place, Elmira, 607-734-8308; Mary or Margaret Crane, 222 Dodge Ave., Corning, 607-936-4095.

In addition to his construction firm, Mr. Meagher founded the Valley Cadillac Corp., which still is owned by his family. His major buildings include St. Mary's Hospital here and St. Jerome's in Batavia; St. Andrew's Seminary, now the Pastoral Center, and the Hiram Sibley Building on East Avenue. He held an engineering degree from the old Mechanics Institute.

He was a member of the Knights of Columbus, Rochester Club and Oak Hill Country Club.

Survivors include three sons, Daniel, Edward and Joseph; 11 grandchildren and a great-grandchild.
