

The treat's on him. Bishop Hogan, that is, who's springing for ice cream for these Bolivian children in LaPaz.

LaPaz . . .

Continued from Page 1

last August and is administered by Jaime Rodriguez, aided by Fernando Bracamonte and Blanca Rodriguez, parish secretary. The previous team, which was the first following the departures of the Rochester priests, was headed by Jorge (Jota) Jiminez, who now works in narcotics education and is preparing for the priesthood in the neighboring diocese of Cochabamba.

The Social Ministry Commission is headed by Eva Calderon and Blanca Rodriguez who in addition to being secretary is also contact person with parishioners. The Evangelization Commission is headed by Father Cleto Hinojosa, Abdol Marquez and Johnny Cabellen.

Father Golden and friend.

Just after their arrival in LaPaz, the group gets ready to board Jeeps for trip to parish. From left, Father Reinhart; Abdol Marquez, of the San Jose catechetical staff; Bishop Hogan; Jaime Rodriguez, parish administrator; Father Hohman; Father Conboy; Father Golden, and Father Daniel Stretch from St. Louis who is episcopal vicar for the LaPaz diocese Zone B.

Soccer's the game in Bolivia.

Bolivian children and American young at heart (Father Reinhart and Anthony Costello) get along fine.