'You Count' Program Set to Open May 15

Five Rochester churches, Holy Apostles, Holy Family, St. Francis of Assisi, Grace Presbyterian and Lyell Avenue Baptist are working together these days in a program that has taken months to develop.

That's the date volunteers will go throughout the region canvassing the neighborhoods and taking censuses.

A major objective of the program, according to Sister Patricia Austin, SSND, principal of Holy Family's school, will be to develop programs in which the varied churches can "really cooperate."

"You Count," is the name of the program which will have its official kick-off on Sunday, May 15, from 1 to 5 p.m.
