

In the new homes at Vila Bella, a family of 7 shares the bedroom, above. Below is the kitchen with a gas stove, with family congregated outside.

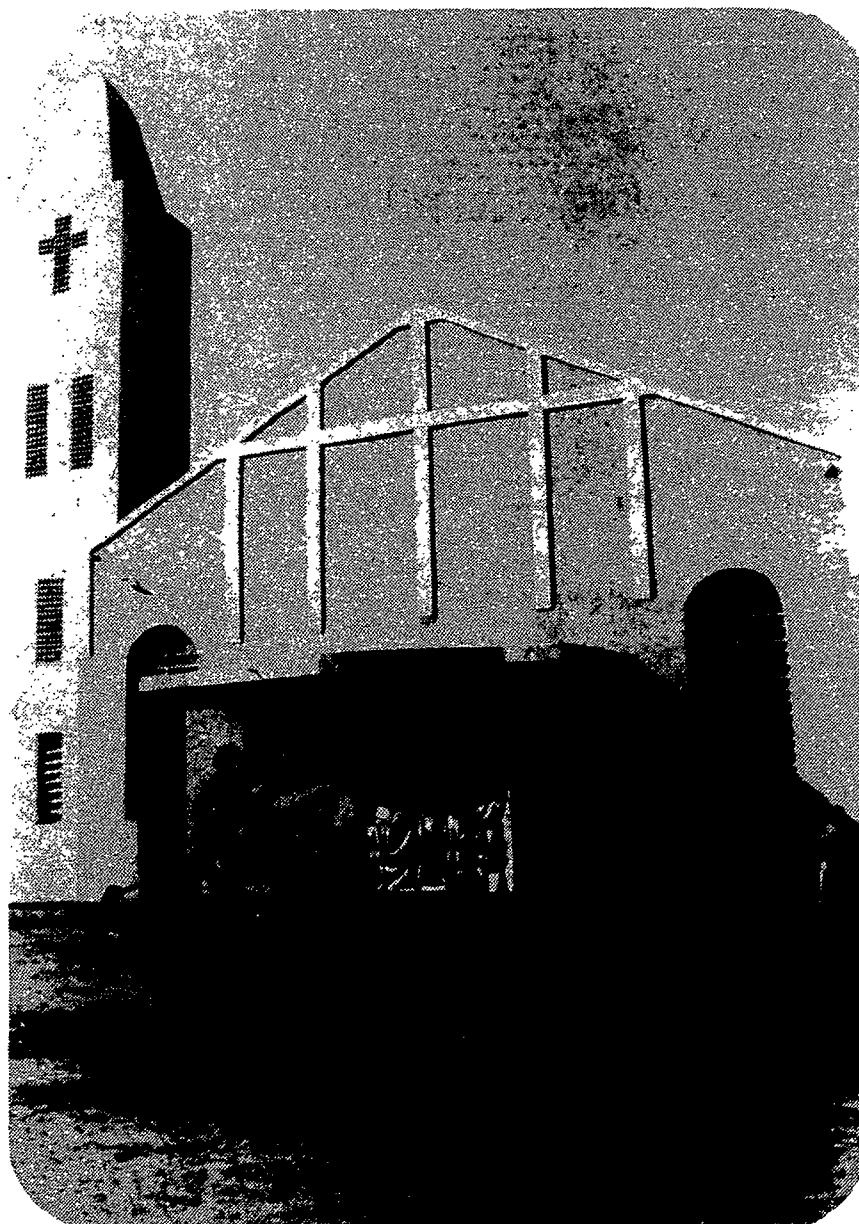

Sister Katherine explains a parish catechetical project to Bishop Hogan and Father Reinhart. "Begin in Your Home" is conducted throughout Brazil during Lent and at Christmastime. A special home liturgy is directed at reflection on Scriptures. In background is parish secretary Tanya.

Itaguacu

"Good morning, my name is Gerald," was the greeting Bishop Hogan received from the boy in center. He had mastered this bit of English for the bishop and his party. Sister Christel is at right.

The mural outside the parish church at Itaguacu was done by Sister Gilmartin Cardinal.
