Mercy Appeal Nears Close

The camera's eye is discreet. Just to the right of the bathtub, out of frame, in the room the size of a walk-in closet, is a laundry machine.

of space upstairs at the Motherhouse on Blossom Road.

The camera's eye is generous. It bestows a greater light than can be trapped in the dark maze of narrow hallways on the second floor of an old building.

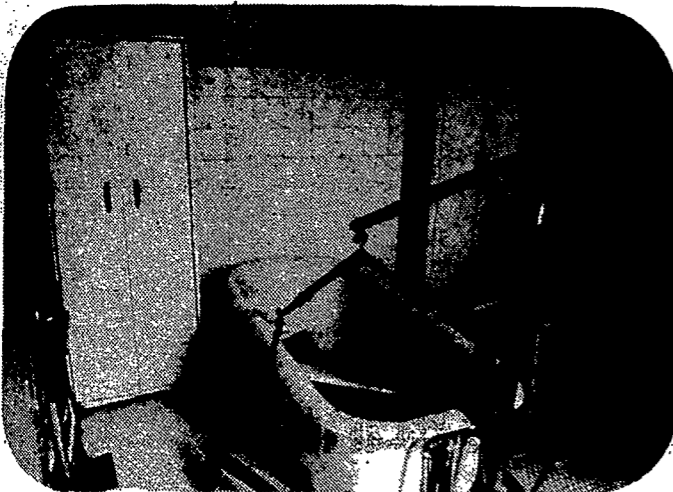

Tomorrow, hopefully, with the help of people throughout the diocese, their home will be bright, efficient, uncrowded, spartan yes, but far more worthy of women who have dedicated their lives to God and the Church, and to anyone in need.

And yet, the camera's eye is accurate. It seizes the touch of hands, an embrace: evidence of a spirit. "The sisters never complain, the girls who work here never complain. They are so cheerful," an observer says.

The Sisters of Mercy are this month winding up a campaign for funds to renovate a floor of the novitiate building at the Motherhouse to care for their infirm and elderly sisters.

The older women here have lived lives of service in the community of the Sisters of Mercy. Today, this is their home, small parcels

The appeal is headquartered at the Motherhouse of the Sisters of Mercy, 1437 Blossom Road, Rochester, N.Y. 14610.
