

Children of Good Shepherd and Guardian Angels schools in Henrietta stream from the lunchroom into the warm, sunny climate, to play on the slides, swings and climber. An occasional class meets under a tree to study history, or perhaps to practice guitar. How much more enjoyable to be outdoors after the long, cold winter!

The children of St. Augustine's School performed May 16 for about 600 parents and other residents of the 19th and 20th wards, demonstrating what they had learned in the school's singing and dancing programs. Parents raised the money to launch the programs last Fall, and the diocese has underwritten some part of the expense.

K. of C. Slates Mass

Father Lawrence Gross, chaplain at Bishop Kearney High School, will celebrate Mass and address members of the First Friday Club, June 3, at the Knights of Columbus Council 178 clubrooms at 670 Thurston Road near Brooks Avenue.

Mass will be celebrated at 11:45 a.m., followed by lunch.

The club was founded in 1942 with blessing of Bishop James E. Kearney when Thomas O'Connor was grand night of the Rochester Council, K. of C.

The purpose of the club is to promote greater love and devotion to the Sacred Heart and to relate Our Lady's promise to those who celebrate the First Fridays. In recent years, the Daily Mass League and the K. of C. Auxiliary have joined in sponsoring the meetings.

All are invited to participate in the Mass and the lunch. The club meets each Friday, with the exception of the months of July and August. Following the June meeting, the club will meet on each First Friday, beginning in September at Council 178.

Those who have attended meetings this year include Bishop Joseph L. Hogan and Fathers Paul Freemesser,

Robert C. Bradler, Paul G. Wohlrab, Benedict Ehmann, Charles Mulligan, Leonard A. Kelly, Bernard F. Dollen and Anthony J. Valente.
